More Heavy Snow For North Ohio

Lonesomest Place In Town?

WHILE DOWNTOWN pre-Christmas business was reported excellent, customers seemed to be staying away from this vending station in droves Thursday morning as Washington C. H., experienced its second straight day of sub-zero temperatures. The ice market apparently is glutted for the moment.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Northeast Ohio residents — battered for six days by snow, winds, bitter cold and all the troubles accompanying these elements — braced once more today for a new onslaughter of heavy snow.

Just when the picture seemed to be brightening with the end of snow, sunny skies and diminishing winds, the weather bureau issued the bad news for the northern Ohio area:

"Snow beginning early this afternoon changing to snow flurries and snow squalls later tonight and Friday. . . considerable drifting and hazardous driving conditions tonight. . . ."

More than 250 vehicles were stuck in a massive, frozen traffic jam on a six-mile stretch of Interstate 90 after midnight. It took more than 10 hours to clear the route.

As temperatures dipped to record lows in the sub-zero range, the snow blanket of up to four feet became glazed like a skating rink. Biting winds blew across roads and cut visibility in the Lake County area.

"We got only one to three inches or so during the night, so that wasn't the problem," said a highway patrolman at Painesville. "The ramps froze and the trucks began jacknifing. Once one of those big trucks stops, it just can't get started again."

Two big tanks were summoned from the Army Reserve Center at Painesville in an effort to clear up the roads in Lake County.

In Ashtabula County, the state's hardest - hit area, another three inches fell during the night. Some 40 trucks were jammed up in a frozen bottleneck on a short stretch of Ohio 45 between Rome and Rock Creek.

The coldest weather of the season hit the state from Canada late Tuesday night. Cold records that stood for 91 years toppled as the Arctic air knifed through the state.

Toledo broke a record for Dec. 12th going back to 1871 with 9 de-

Zero Readings In Deep South; Florida Reports 14

Weather Deaths May Reach 150; Crop Loss Estimated In Millions

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A huge mass of arctic air enveloped the entire eastern half of the nation today. The damaging and tragic effects of the prolonged late autumn cold wave and snowstorm mounted.

The unseasonably cold weather persisted from the northern borders deep into the South, causing inconvenience to millions.

Damage to property and to vegetable crops in Florida was estimated in the millions of dollars. The continued cold threatened the multimillion-dollar citrus crop. Temperatures ranged from the teens in northern Florida to the 30s and 40s in southern sections.

Deaths in connection with the severe weather in the last week soared to near the 100 mark—with some estimates as high as 150.

The biting cold air dropped temperatures to record low levels for the season and for the date in many areas. The South was especially hard hit by the icy blasts.

The main core of the arctic air was in the northern Gulf states. The mercury plunged to 11 below in Crossville, in eastern Tennessee. Temperatures along the coast dipped to the middle teens. Readings of zero were reported in north Georgia and in mountain areas of Alabama.

Eleven persons, including several children, perished in fires in Georgia. A fire killed a family of five, including a 3-day-old baby, in Dalton as the mercury dropped to zero. Three children huddling around an open fireplace to keep warm perished in a fire that destroyed a four-room frame house in Gainesville.

More snow fell in the snow-clogged sections of the Northeast and strong winds added to the mountanous drifts. Colder weather swept into the main snowbelt which covered areas along the south and east shores of the Great Lakes in Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York State. Depths ranged up to from 20 to 48 inches after a week of steady snow. Five inches of fresh snow was dumped on Ashtabula County, Ohio.

There was a slight moderation from the sub-zero cold in most of the North Central region, but forecasters said that more cold air was on the way and the relief would be of short duration.

Zero or below readings extended across areas in Indiana, most of Ohio, sections of Kentucky, Tennessee, Southern Illinois and upstate New York. Zero to 10 above temperatures prevailed in New

Kennedy Lauds Stevenson For 'Excellent Job'

President Says He Doesn't Know NSC 'Leak' Source

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy tried again to close the book on the Adlai Stevenson chapter in the Cuban crisis. He said it should be left to history "when the whole record will be spread out in great detail."

But he said he thought that after having read various statements of the past 10 days "any historian—and I think this matter should be left to historians—who walks through this mine field of charges and countercharges, should proceed with some care."

The President in his news conference Wednesday touched on many subjects — including the Mona Lisa and a record spoofing the First Family. But the questions kept returning to Cuba and Stevenson.

The President again endorsed the U.N. ambassador saying: "The fact of the matter is that Gov. Stevenson renders very distinguished service. He has done an excellent job at the United Nations."

But the President left up in the air who in the administration may have given two reporters information portraying Stevenson as urging appeasement during Cuban crisis conferences of the National Security Council's executive committee.

The president said: "It is my judgment that this statement or interpretation of Gov. Stevenson's position did not come from a member of the National Security Council. I satisfied myself on that. I never heard anyone characterize Stevenson's position in that way and I am satisfied

Kennedy Review On TV Monday

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy will appear on national television networks Monday night to review his first two years in the White House.

The White House announced today that the hour-long program will be taped in advance and shown at 6:30 p.m. EST by ABC and CBS and at 8:30 p.m. by NBC.

Coffee Break..

LIGHTS will be turned on shortly on the Court and Fayette St. bridges over Paint Creek. . .

City Manager David Foell told Council Wednesday night rehabilitation of the lighting systems on the two bridges is virtually complete. . . Only major item remaining is installation of timers. . .

The lights have been off for about a dozen years. . . Council recently ordered them turned on to spark up the appearance of the city. . .

A BOOKLET, "The Selection of a City Manager," was passed out to councilmen at their meeting Wednesday night. . .

It was the only action in the matter of naming a successor to City Manager David Foell taken during the meeting. . .

Presumably, after reading the booklet, councilmen will be able to make a choice among the several applicants for the job which becomes vacant Dec. 31. . .

CITY MANAGER David Foell reported to Council several weeks ago that the water bill at the sewage treatment plant had been rising steadily and had reached $130 a month. . .

He asked for authority to investigate the possibility of drilling a well to supply the needs of the treatment plant. . . .

Council deferred action on the request after Councilman John D. Murphy proposed that a letter signed by all seven councilmen be sent to the Ohio Water Service Co. on the matter. . . .

Foell was asked Wednesday night whether a reply had been received. . . He said no. . .

However, City Auditor Clarence A. Christman Jr. reported the November water bill for the treatment plant had been received. . . It was for $69. . . He said this was the approximate amount of the water bill before it began to rise. . .

U.S. Reassures Allies On Talks With Moscow

Rusk Sees Opportunity For NATO Initiative

PARIS (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk urged the North Atlantic Treaty Organization today to take the initiative in the cold war and demonstrate that freedom is the wave of the future.

In a cautiously optimistic report to the annual NATO winter ministerial meeting, Rusk said the outcome of the Cuban crisis and weaknesses developing in the Communist bloc offered the West new opportunities.

The world may be arriving, he explained, at a time when the East instead of the West will do a greater part of the worrying.

Rusk also assured America's NATO allies the United States government is not negotiating with the Soviet Union on any other subject than Cuba.

He proposed wide-ranging Western studies of major diplomatic problems to consolidate advantages now flowing toward the Atlantic community.

And he warned the Soviet Union the United States has given all the concessions it intends to offer in the negotiations for a treaty to ban nuclear tests.

Rusk spoke for nearly an hour at the opening session of a three-day ministerial review of NATO problems in the Paris headquarters of the 15-nation alliance.

He said the Soviet Union is bumping into serious problems, including troubles inside the country itself, within the Communist bloc, and in relations with the rest of the world.

He described Premier Khrushchev's differences with Peking as

Diggers Cut 2,100 Trunk Phone Lines

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Seventy telephone repairmen worked through sub - zero temperatures during the night and today to repair 2,100 telephone trunk lines knocked out when four main cables were cut accidentally.

A spokesman for the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. said 136 major circuits had been restored by 8 a.m., but 50 more still were out and it may be midnight before all commercial and private service is back in operation.

Each of the severed strands of wire had to be hand - spliced, which made the repair operation in bitter cold weather so much more difficult.

Five mobile telephone units were set up for emergency service in nearby Cuyahoga Falls, where the cables were accidentally cut by telephone company workers digging a trench Wednesday.

Service disruption affected many Akron business firms.

Tito Applauds Cuba Handling

Yugoslav Stand To Irk Chinese

MOSCOW (AP)—President Tito of Yugoslavia addressed the Soviet Parliament today and approved Soviet Premier Khrushchev's handling of the Cuban crisis. This seemed certain to increase Communist Chinese anger at the Soviet leadership.

The Yugoslav leader, expelled from the Communist fold as a "deviationist" by Stalin in 1948, told the Supreme Soviet that Kremlin and Yugoslav points of view "on all major international questions coincide or are close to each other."

Tito's appearance followed an address by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko in which, echoing Khrushchev's major policy speech, he suggested the U.S.S.R. wanted to negotiate a settlement of the West Berlin issue. He said Moscow is setting no deadline.

The 1,443-member Supreme Soviet wound up its four-day session by approving a sweeping reorganization of the Soviet economic structure and accepting the U.S.S.R. 86.6-billion-ruble budget for the ensuing year. The Parliament approved Khrushchev's moves to consolidate economic controls in a newly created National Economic Council. It also approved Khrushchev's "peaceful coexistence" policies.

War On Divergent Views . . . Peace With Tito

Khrushchev's Criticism Of China Called 'Historic Turning Point'

MOSCOW AP) — Premier Khrushchev has declared war on the ideological views of Communist China and Albania and publicly made his peace with his old enemy in the Communist camp, Yugoslav President Tito.

In his speech to the Supreme Soviet Wednesday Khrushchev outlined to his people for the first time the details of his feud with the dissenting Chinese and Albanians.

A neutralist diplomat called the speech "a historic turning point" in Moscow-Peking rivalry.

Khrushchev declared that dogmatism, a Communist synonym for the extreme views of the Chinese, had become just as dangerous as revisionism, a word applied to such independent Communist thinking such as Yugoslavia's.

He swore that, from now on, "Soviet Communists, to whom there is nothing higher than unity of the ranks of the world Communist movement, will fight resolutely against both right-wing and left-wing opportunism, which today is no less dangerous than revisionism."

In an open affront to the anti-Titoist Chinese and Albanians Khrushchev declared Soviet friendship for the Yugoslav Communists.

BACKGROUND AP SPECIAL REPORT OF THE NEWS

This drew an approving nod from Tito, seated behind him on the stage, and loud applause from the deputies of the Supreme Soviet.

Khrushchev blamed Stalin for the differences that led to Yugoslavia's expulsion from the Communist camp in 1948.

"But our Yugoslav comrades were not wholly blameless'," he added.

"There are still serious divergencies on a number of ideological questions, he continued, but recent moves in Yugoslav domestic and foreign policy have "eliminated much of what we regarded as erroneous and as prejudicing the cause of building socialism (communism) in Yugoslavia."

He apparently was referring to Tito's recent economic reforms tightening central controls over decentralized Yugoslav industries, and his close support of Soviet foreign policy stands.

While never mentioning the Chinese by name, Khrushchev accused them of "sinking deeper and deeper in the quagmire of leftist opportunism, splitting tactics and sectarianism."

"In the crisis over Cuba, Yugoslav Communists took a correct position, whereas dogmatists who pose as true Marxists - Leninists took a provocative position," he said.

"What the crisis in Cuba has shown is that the main danger was represented by those who stood and stand on dogmatic positions."

Snow, Wind Add New County Peril

New Holland Records Area Low—9 Below

Winter weather continued to be the No. 1 fact of life in Fayette County Thursday.

Temperatures were moderating a bit, but fresh snow—an inch or more is forecast during the day—and gusty winds more than compensated for the slight rise in the mercury.

This is expected to increase the peril to travel on area streets and highways, which remain hard hit despite the valiant efforts of city, township, county and state road crews the past week.

New Holland had the dubious honor of reporting the area's lowest temperature reading Thursday morning. Jack Hunter said his thermometer registered 9 below.

Lowest reading reported inside Fayette County was at Parrott Station where Gale Parrett read a 6 below. Coyt Stookey, Washington C. H. observer for the Weather Bureau recorded a 5 below.

The Parrott Station reading was five degrees abouve the county low there Wednesday morning. The local reading was unchanged.

Armco To Recall 100 At Middletown, Hamilton Plants

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — The Armco Steel Corp. announced today it will recall at least 100 of its furloughed employes by the end of this month for work at the Middletown and Hamilton plants.

Don S. Holstein, Middletown works manager, said the men are being recalled because of resumption of some blast furnace operations, a construction project at the Middletown plant and resumption of a maintenance training program.

The No 1 blast furnace at Hamilton has been idle since last July.

Holstein said demands of the automobile industry and an indication that some firms are doing inventory buying resulted in the recall of the men.

WCH Plant Furiougns To Reach 48 Friday

Armco officials in Washington C. H. said Thursday that there are no plans to recall 38 men furloughed here because of a winter slump in orders and that an additional 10 men will be laid off Friday.

This will leave a working force of 368, with no more furloughs anticipated.

Fabrication of steel buildings at the Washington C. H. plant is closely tied with the construction industry and construction, in turn is seasonal.

His column was carried in 299 newspapers.

'End Of An Era' For Romanoff's

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) —Romanoff's, for more than two decades a sartorial showplace for movie stars dining out, is closing its doors for good Dec. 31.

Proprietor Mike Romanoff admits it's no coincidence that the famed restaurant is going out of business on the eve of the Internal Revenue Service crackdown on expense account living.

"It's an end of an era," he said Wednesday.

Mariner II Nears Moment When It 'Sizes Up' Venus

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mariner II now approaches its magic moment in space. The frail, bug-like explorer—seared by the nearness of the sun—is ready for a first, close look at a neighbor planet, earth's cloud-veiled sister Venus.

At 3:10 p.m. (EST) Friday Mariner is to pass some 20,000 miles from Venus—give or take a few thousand miles.

For half an hour its instruments will measure radio and heat radiations from below the dense clouds that hide the planet from sight.

It is an historic moment in man's probing farther and farther into his solar system. Even now a Soviet space probe is pushing toward Mars for a closer look at Mariner has weathered a series of troubles, but with one of its solar panels out of operation, it is about to complete its mission.

Mariner is already holder of all records for long distance radio communication through space. When it reports back from Venus, it will set a new record—radio signals from a man-made device 36 million miles away.

This all began on Aug. 27 when an Atlas-Agena B rocket complex boosted Mariner into space.

On Oct. 31, almost 12 million miles from earth, Mariner radioed that its power production had dropped. Technicians guessed that one of the solar panels, which convert sunlight into electricity, had developed a short circuit. They commanded Mariner to cease its electricity-consuming science experiments while they pondered the problem.

On Nov. 7, they decided to renew the experiments, since they seemed to be getting enough power from the remaining solar panel. Suddenly the short-solar panel began operating again, and technicians decided the short-circuit had corrected itself. The next day they turned the experiments on again.

On Nov. 15, a solar panel went out again. Mariner continues on one solar panel.

Toward the end of November, temperatures on the sunward face of the solar panels were up to 200 degrees Fahrenheight, with spacecraft temperatures 100 degrees on the shady side. By Friday, experts estimate temperatures on the solar panels will reach 250 degrees.

Crusaders March On White House

Women's Group Defies Probers

WASHINGTON (AP) — An excited, buzzing crowd of women jammed the House caucus room today as a subcommittee on un-American activities headed into the windup of three days of hearings on Women Strike for Peace.

In a statement, the pacifist group said members would lay a wreath at a statue of American suffragettes in the basement of the Capitol after the hearing, then march to the White House a mile down Pennsylvania Avenue and distribute posters asking for an end to nuclear testing.

Called as a witness today was Mrs. Dagmar Wilson, Washington leader of Women Strike for Peace and organizer of several White House picket lines.

Also subpoenaed were Dr. William Obrinsky of New York and John W. Darr Jr., chairman of the Greenwich Peace Center, who said he is an ordained minister and a fifth-grade teacher at a New York ethical cultural school.

In the past two days a number of women have been called who were identified by the committee as having been Communists sometime in the past. Most, but not all, of these witnesses cited the Fifth Amendment in refusing to answer questions.

In its statement this morning, the group said, "each woman who has so far testified has, according to her own conscience, upheld the heritage of our Constitution and affirmed her right and responsibility to work for peace despite the disruptive nature of these investigations."

Choral Concert At MT Sunday

Christmas Music To Feature Program

Now, after weeks of preparation, the Miami Trace Senior Mixed Choir of 85 voices and the Varsity Tones, a chorus of 24 girls, are ready to present the first annual Christmas Choral Concert, under the direction of Vocal Music Director David Bezona, at 3:30 p. m. Sunday in the MT auditorium.

Features of the concert will be the cantata, "Song of Christmas," by the choir and "'Twas The Night Before Christmas," by the Varsity Tones.

David Belt will be the cantata narrator. Solo parts will be sung by him, Judy Matthews, Marsha Robinson, Ann Cunningham and Steve Graumlich. Tom Snapp will be the organ accompanist and John Fredericks the piano accompanist.

Peggy Kelley will play the accompaniment for "'Twas The Night Before Christmas," by the Varsity Tones and Wayne Locke will be the accompanist for all the other members of the concert by both groups.

Bezona said the concert has been timed for an hour and a half and should be concluded by 5 p.m.

There will be no admission for the concert, but at the back of the auditorium will be a box into which gifts for residents of the Columbus State School may be placed. This is a Miami Trace school project. Most acceptable gifts, it was said, are jewelry, cosmetics, stationery, pens and pencils, handkerchiefs, candy, simple toys and, of course, money with which gifts such as these may be purchased.

Columbus 'Normal' After Water Break

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Authorities hoped for school and business as usual—or as normal as possible in zero-range temperatures—today in Ohio's capital city after a 24-hour stretch plagued with utility failures.

The big one, of course was Wednesday's major main break that left downtown Columbus and other sectors of the city waterless for eight hours.

That was remedied shortly before noon by bypassing the break, but in late afternoon an 8-inch water line on Columbus' far Southeast Side ruptured. That affected about 200 homes, and crews still were trying to get water service restored after midnight. They expected to succeed by early today.

Around the city, perhaps another half-dozen lesser water lines sprang leaks during the day and night, but the city said none of these were serious.

Columbus' troubles—which also included a power failure late Tuesday night and early Wednesday affecting large areas of the West and South sides as well as outlying areas — were part of a string of service disruptions in Ohio Wednesday.

Newark also had a water main break, and about 50 homes lost service.

Gas leaking from a break in an 8-inch gas main in Toledo touched off an explosion and fire that destroyed a store building.

DT&I Executive Urges Quick Legislative Aid

CLEVELAND (AP)—A railroad executive with a legal background describes railroad mergers as a matter of buying time.

"No one pretends that mergers will solve all the problems of the railroad industry," Thomas O. Broker, law vice president, Nickel Plate Road, said Wednesday.

"But they will go a long way toward keeping the industry alive until corrective legislation is passed."

Broker, speaking at a railroad forum, said he thought mergers could improve the railroad car supply, reduce expenses and result in more efficient routes.

Another panelist at the forum attended by 300 railroad workers, shippers and business leaders was David E. Smucker, president of the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton Railroad.

The executive from Dearborn, Mich., predicted that if the railroad industry has to wait until 1964 for legislative relief, "We'll be chiseling our own tombstones."

Smucker said in his opinion the time for public action is now to get Congress to act on what he called outmoded regulations.

Deaths, Funerals

James H. Jackson

SABINA — James H. Jackson, 61, Zimmerman Rd., died in Greene County Memorial Hospital, Xenia, Thursday morning following a three-year illness.

Mr. Jackson came from Greene County, South Shore, Ky., two years ago to make his home with his only surviving sister, Mrs. Charles Williams, near Bowersville. He also is survived by five children.

Arrangements for services and burial at South Shore in charge of the Littleton Funeral Home here are incomplete.

Man Admits Killing Wife, Her Parents

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP)—A young husband confessed to police that he shot and killed his estranged wife and her parents in Arizona and then fled to California.

He left his year-old baby alive with the bodies.

"I was going to shoot myself in front of them," Raymond J. Hudgens, 22, recounted slowly after his capture here Wednesday. "Then I thought, 'Why not take them with me?'"

Hudgens unfolded the tale for detectives of how he fired at his wife Grace Mary, 20; and her parents, Myron Young, 67, and Dorothy Young, 55, until his pistol was empty.

"I shot bullets everywhere," he said.

The shooting occurred Monday at the Young home near Kingman, Ariz.

Hudgens told officers he shot the three after his wife rebuffed a reconciliation attempt.

He was booked here as a fugitive allegedly responsible for the Arizona murders.

Hudgens said he put his gun to his head after shooting the three victims but could not bring himself to pull the trigger.

ONE weather-caused fire was reported in the county during the night.

A 39-year-old truck driver from Fairborn suffered second-degree burns of his face, neck and right hand about midnight Wednesday, when the truck's alcohol-filled radiator overheated and exploded. The accident occurred on Rt. 35, two miles west of Washington C. H.

Sheriff's Deputy F. H. Perone said the driver of the semi - trailer assembly, Russell Kenman, noticed the radiator overheating and pulled his rig into the parking lot at the M & M Restaurant near Chaffin School. The radiator exploded before he had climbed out of the cab, Perone stated, spreading alcohol-fueled flames against his face and body.

Kenman was taken by ambulance to Memorial Hospital where he was treated for second-degree burns on his face, neck and right hand, and released.

WASHINGTON C. H. firemen spent approximately 30 minutes between midnight and 12:30 a. m. extinguishing the fire, which caused extensive damage to the wiring and upholstery in the cab. The trailer and its contents were removed later by the commercial firm. The tractor-cab was towed away Thursday forenoon.

Among the temperature readings around the county reported Thursday morning were: Dave Krupla, Bloomingburg, 4 below; Harlan Hoppes at Jeffersonville, 0 at 8:30 a. m.; and Floyd Hoppes, near New Martinsburg, 0 at 6:30 a. m.

Hospital Treats 3 Accident Victims

One adult and two children were treated at Memorial Hospital Wednesday for burns, abrasions and a broken collar bone suffered in miscellaneous home accidents. All were later discharged.

Charles Woolover, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Woolover, Bloomingburg, received acid burns on his face and eyes when he held a lighted match to a battery on a charger, causing it to explode;

Sharon Crawford, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crawford, Mt. Sterling, fractured her left collar bone in a fall down a flight of stairs;

Willmuth Jean Burnett, 38, Leesburg, mashed the middle finger of her right hand in a car door.

Balance On Fire Contract

Councilmen Debate $259.45 Question

Where's the 259.45 coming from?

City Council and Union Twp. trustees discussed this question at length Wednesday night. When the discussion ended the question was still unanswered.

The problem is this:

When the city and township signed a fire protection contract covering 1962 it provided that the township pay .70-mill times the township's tax duplicate for the service. This amounted to $10,573.46.

However, when the tax distribution came from the county auditor it amounted to only $10,314.01. Some $128 had been deducted by the county for distributing the levy. The balance resulted from delinquent taxes.

THE CITY'S position is this: The township agreed to pay .70-mill for fire protection, not .70-mill less the cost of distribution and delinquent taxes.

Council Chairman R. S. Sanderson said: "When we send a fire truck to a fire in Union Twp. we don't ask first whether the property taxes have been paid."

The township's position is this: The .70-mill was a voted levy. It was the only money we had to pay for fire protection. The additional amount cannot be paid until we get it. We cannot get it until delinquent taxes are collected or the property sold for taxes.

And Frank Dill, spokesman for the trustees, pointed out that the $128 charged by the county for distributing the levy will never be recovered.

THE TRUSTEES urged council to forgive this amount and await disposition of the delinquent taxes to receive the balance.

This Council hesitated to do.

City Auditor Clarence A. Christman Jr., raised the question originally because he doesn't want a state examiner to return a finding against him for failing to collect the full amount specified in the contract.

He pointed out that if the city waited until the delinquent taxes are collected it might be five years. "By then the township might not have a contract with us and we would never get the money," he said.

In any event, Christman urged Council to arrive at some kind of agreement on the matter.

Because of the question, Council decided against giving final approval to a new contract covering 1963-64. The charge will be .75-mill. Instead, the legislation was placed on second reading.

IN OTHER matters:

Council deferred action on a recommendation by Police Chief D. Vaiden Long that the no parking ban on the north side of East St. be extended from North St. to Short St.

The city fathers had sought the chief's recommendation after receiving a letter from Ralph Penn, 442 E. East St., last month urging that the ban be extended as far east as Sycamore St.

Chief Long's recommendation amounted to a reaffirmation of a recommendation he made last summer. At that time Council ordered the ban in effect only from Fayette to North St. except on Sundays.

In the discussion Wednesday night councilmen appeared hesitant about extending the ban all the way to Short St. Councilman Herbert Wilson moved that the ban be extended to Sycamore St., but when there was no second he withdrew the motion. The matter was then tabled.

COUNCIL gave its approval to inclusion in the contract with Washington C. H. Construction Co. the provision of a walk - through tunnel between the basement under the existing fire station and the basement under the new addition being built on the north side of the structure.

The tunnel, which will cost $150, was recommended by Fire Chief George R. Hall in the interest of greater department efficiency. The approval is subject to a written statement from the city's consulting engineer that such a tunnel is structurally sound.

On motion of Councilman John D. Murphy, Council approved the purchase of about 10 to 15 rods of snow fence to be erected on the Carolyn Rd. side of Eastside School to alleviate a serious drifting problem. City Manager David Foell said a city snowplow had become stuck in the drift.

COUNCIL deferred action on a proposal to enclose the front entrance to the City Building to provide a storm door. Originally, it was proposed that wooden panels be used. This would have cost $150. But after some discussion, Council decided to wait to see how much additional would be needed to have the entrance glass-enclosed. Either could be removed in the summer months.

The city's one-way alley ordinance was amended to permit two-way traffic on the alley west of Hinde St. behind the former Kroger Store.

Another ordinance was passed authorizing renewal of an in-and-out fire protection contract with the operators and agents of Ohio Wesleyan Farms. The contract permits dispatch of city fire apparatus to property located partially in Union Twp., which is covered by contract with the township, and in Paint, Jasper and Wayne Twps.

myself that no one did."

He added there were other people who might have. But that, he said, is a matter for reporters—"A matter that, as I say, I think can much better be left to history when the whole record will be spread out in great detail."

Kennedy was asked: "You don't know, then, who leaked it?"

"No, I don't know who," he replied, "and I think it is unfortunate if anybody discusses any matter that comes before the National Security Council because I think it lessens its effectivenes."

The tempest blew up over an article in the Saturday Evening Post, written by Washington newsmen Stewart Alsop and Charles Bartlett, which gave an account of the council's deliberations during the crisis and the positions various members took.

Stevenson has denounced the account of his position as untrue and Kennedy made public a letter expressing his confidence in the U. N. ambassador.

Because Bartlett is an old and close friend of the President, rumors immediately shot through the capital that someone in the administration was "out to get Adlai." Fears were expressed that an attempt was being made to undermine him at the United Nations.

On other matters, Kennedy said he hadn't had time to digest Soviet Premier Khrushchev's speech earlier in the day in which he declared he would hold the United States to its promise of a guarantee against invading Cuba.

Kennedy said he hoped Cuban settlement negotiations at the United Nations would reach "some conclusion" but asserted the United States would use its own methods to insure against another Soviet buildup in Cuba. These methods, he said, "are very effective."

As of now, Kennedy declared, "it is our best judgment" that the Soviets have withdrawn their missiles and bombers from Cuba.

The United States, he added, will announce within two weeks new regulations to penalize non-Communist shipping involved in the Cuban trade.

The President reiterated, without specifications, his proposal to cut income taxes next year. He contended he and Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, are not as far apart as a cursory reading of a recent interview with Mills might indicate.

Mills, who conferred privately with Kennedy after the news conference, said in the interview that he opposed a "quickie" tax cut or reduction that would balloon the government's debt.

Kennedy said he would detail his tax program at a speech before the Economic Club of New York Friday night.

Kennedy touched on these other topics in the nationally televised and broadcast conference:

BRITAIN—No final decision on abandoning the Skybolt missile, on which Britain had based nuclear defense plans, will be made before the problem is hashed out with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan at Nassau next week.

SPOOFS — Kennedy chuckled when asked what he thought of "The First Family" record in which Kennedy's voice is mimicked. His audience roared when he said, "I thought it sounded more like Teddy than it did me—so he's annoyed." Teddy is his youngest brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy.

COMMUNICATIONS —Relatively "instantaneous communication" with the Kremlin is desirable to eliminate delays such as occurred in exchanging messages with Khrushchev during the Cuban emergency.

NUCLEAR ROCKET—Not until tests are completed next July will the government decide whether to put more money into the Rover project to develop a nuclear-lowered vehicle for deep space exploration.

VIET NAM—After pouring men and equipment into Viet Nam to counter communist aggression, Kennedy said, "We don't see the end of the tunnel, but I must say I don't think it is darker than it was a year ago, and in some ways lighter."

6,277 Indian Troops Missing

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Indian troops cut off by the Red Chinese offensive are still straggling back down the Himalayas in small groups but 6,277 are officially listed as missing.

Prime Minister Nehru told Parliament known Indian casualties are 197 dead, 291 wounded in battle and 361 frostbite cases.

On the diplomatic front, Soviet Ambassador I. A. Benediktov had a lengthy meeting with Nehru. No communique was issued on their talks.

REV. JOSEPH RADABAUGH

Kiwanians To Hear Lutheran Minister

The Christmas message will be brought to the Kiwanis Club this year by the Rev. Joseph N. Radabaugh, pastor of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Mr. Radabaugh, who came here four years ago to establish a Lutheran Church, will address the club at its dinner meeting Monday night in the Hotel Washington. He has not said what his topic will be.

Good Shepherd Church was formally organized on Palm Sunday in 1960 with 86 confirmed members. It now has 221 and has completed plans for building a new house of worship on N. North St. next year.

A native of Lewisburg, the Rev. Mr. Radabaugh is a graduate of Wittenberg University and Hamma Divinity School, Springfield.

British Troops Hunting Down Brunei Rebels

LABUAN, North Borneo (AP)—British troops pushed out from regained towns in Brunei and northwest Sarawak today chasing rebel bands seeking refuge in dense jungles and swamps.

Local British commanders were concerned that the rebels, whose strength still is unknown, would attempt to organize a long guerrilla war from swampland hideouts.

More Snow For Ohio

grees below zero. Akron reported a record for the date with 5 below, Cleveland had a record 1 below, and Columbus recorded 2 below. The temperature at Findlay and Pandora dropped to 11 below. There were reports of even lower unofficial readings elsewhere.

Snow continued to pile up in the northern counties. Ashtabula reported as much as five inches of new snow, building its snow cover to 48 inches, highest in the Buckeye State.

Other snow depths reported were Painesville 29 inches, Burton 35, Chardon 34, Conneaut 36, Cleveland 20 and Novelty 40.

Cleveland Hopkins Airport was closed for several hours Wednesday by snow drifts that formed as fast as plows pushed them aside. Wind gusts up to 35 miles an hour also hampered snow removal on some highways by blinding drivers of snowplows.

National Weather

England except along coastal areas.

The coldest weather in 22 years was reported in Tallahassee, Fla., this morning as the mercury dropped to 14 above. The 23 in Daytona Beach was the lowest ever for December and the coldest day in more than 18 years. It also was 23 in Tampa, the lowest mark in 15 years.

Ohio counted 27 storm-related deaths. The death toll in Indiana was 14. Missouri reported four deaths. Most of the fatalities in connection with the snowstorm and cold were caused in traffic accidents on snow-packed or ice-covered highways or from overexertion while shoveling snow.

The mercury dipped to 4 above in Atlanta this morning, the coldest weather in more than 12 years. Wednesday's high was 15, the lowest maximum reading for Atlanta since January 1918. Some streams and lakes in Georgia were frozen over. A few school systems closed because of heating problems.

Year-Round Christmas Spirit Guides United Church Women

A timely word of recognition for their own helpful effort, plus cooperation with official county welfare groups, can be said this week for the United Church Women of Fayette County — 125 individual members of 16 area churches — who actively represent over 2,000 church women in Fayette County.

President of UCW here is Mrs. Ormand Dewey, 427 E. Market St.

Among several charitable works promoted by the UCW is the collection, purchase and distribution of new and used clothing and furniture to needy families ot the city-county area.

Two months ago, UCW clothing headquarters were set up in a $25-a-month rented room on Delaware St., between Market St. and Columbus Ave. The room is paid for by individual members' contributions and by the 16 sustaining churches, who donate $5 each annually.

United Church Women co - operate with such official welfare organizations as the Fayette County Welfare Department and the Fayette County chapter of the Red Cross; they also work with Washington C. H. and Miami Trace High Schools' "visiting teachers," Mrs. Virginia Essman and Mrs. Hattie Pinkerton, respectively.

The UCW's clothing committee takes charge of collecting donated clothes and household furnishings, as well as purchasing new material or clothes, and distributing them almost as fast as they are received to needy adults and children throughout the area. Chairman of the clothes committee is Mrs. Byron Leisure.

All members of the committee and Mrs. Pinkerton and Essman have keys to the clothing storehouse and, thus, are able to obtain needed articles at any time.

The group meets four times a year. Recently it had its first "assembly", of two representatives from each church and the officers to plan projects and policies.

Officers besides Mrs. Dewey are Mrs. Roger Hoffman, first vice president; Mrs. W. P. Noble, second vice president; Mrs. Russell Theobald, secretary; Mrs. Charles Edwards, treasurer; Mrs. Frank Mayo, secretary for Christian - social relations; Mrs. Robert Janes, chairman of Christian-world relations committee; and Mrs. Paul Craig, chairman of Christian-social relations committee.

This year the UCW is participating with other groups in sending gifts and money to Ohio's migrant workers — usually between 15 and 18 thousand.

The UCW also sponsors "friendly visitors", a program in which 35 women under leadership of Mrs. Felix Halliday and Mrs. Roy Coe Jr., visit the Nursing homes of Fayette County regularly. Each member visits one of 34 patients in the county who have no family or friends to call on them.

Mrs. Dewey said Thursday the group, in order to accomplish its worthwhile ends to the fullest, needs donations of useful articles and financial support where possible.

The UCW was among other groups and individuals who contributed clothing and appliances to Amos Goolsby Jr. and family, who lost their home and all other property in a fire Tuesday evening.

Rusk's Speech

serious and predicted more trouble probably is coming. At home, he added, Khrushchev's government is beset with serious economic problems both in manufacturing and agriculture.

He told the delegates that when such topics as Berlin came up during the Cuban negotiations, U.S. representatives replied with positions previously taken by the Kennedy administration.

Because of the number of exchanges between President Kennedy and Khrushchev and the secrecy still surrounding them, European members of NATO had felt some concern that the Americans might be extending the discussion into other fields.

Rusk suggested that the intensive Allied work that had gone into the preparation of the Western position on Berlin might be extended to cover other cold war problems. He suggested that the permanent representatives of the NATO council discuss it and report to the ministers at their spring meeting.

Rusk said he thought NATO's prospects look good if the alliance retains its capacity to adjust to swiftly changing conditions.

American sources said Rusk told the Allies although the Geneva negotiations for a nuclear test ban remain deadlocked, it was worthwhile for the West to press forward to see what progress could be achieved.

He said fragmentary arms control steps also are worth pursuing. He mentioned particularly efforts to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons and arrangements to guarantee outer space is used for peaceful purposes.

But all such arms arrangements must include Communist China, he declared. He added that they also must not prevent the setting up of a NATO nuclear force—one of the chief topics before the ministerial meeting.

Stocks Listless In Early Trading

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market drifted along listlessly with prices irregular early this afternoon. Trading was moderate.

Big Three motors held small advances.

A few of the oils and utilities attracted continued investment demand and the nonferrous metals section was a bit higher.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .1 at 240.4 with industrials off .1, rails off .4, and utilities up .4.

General Motors, Ford, and Chrysler held fractional gains while American and Studebaker traded about unchanged.

The top three steels held unchanged for most of the morning but in the afternoon U.S. Steel gave up a fraction. Jones & Laughlin also dropped slightly.

Douglas Aircraft gave up about a point. U.S. Gypsum also lost a point.

Eastman Kodak advanced more than a point and Polaroid added a couple. IBM showed a fractional gain.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 1.80 at 649.13.

Unlikely Christmas Presents

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) —Excerpts from letters people would like to get but rarely do:

"Through a clerical error, our billing department undercharged you $87.63 on your last month's credit card account. But since it was our fault, and in consideration of the fact Christmas is near, we'd just like you to forget the whole matter."

"As your landlord we wish to express our appreciation of you as a tenant these last 15 years. So we are installing a new refrigerator and stove in your apartment immediately, and beginning next month your rent will be reduced $35. Anytime your wife would like to have the place repainted--at our expense naturally—please let us know."

"It is my pleasure to inform you that Premier Khrushchev was deeply impressed by the letter you wrote to your newspaper outlining the 10 basic errors of the Kremlin. He has asked me if you and your family would consent to be his guests for a two-month winter vacation in Switzerland, where he would like to meet you to discuss questions of international policy more fully. It will not be necessary to bring skis or overshoes, as they will be provided by the Soviet government."

"Our publishing firm was sent a copy of your last talk to your local Rotary Club. It is our wish to include it in a new volume we are issuing to be called, 'Great Inspirational Messages of the 20th Century.' We are enclosing a check for $500 against advance royalties."

"I found the wallet you lost in a taxi. In going through it for identification papers I came across the photo of a girl with a fresh and exciting face—a girl I take to be your daughter. As a motion picture talent scout, I wonder if she would be interested in a film career? Although we could offer her only $750 a week to start, her future earnings would be—"

"Sir, you don't know me, but I know you. I am a bus driver. Last July 19 at 8:03 a.m. on Swampshore Drive you got on my bus and gave me a $5 bill. I gave you back 100 nickels in change. My conscience has been bothering me ever since. It was a mean thing to do, and I want you to know it will never, never happen again."

"My wife, Jacqueline, And I are both delighted with your patriotic gift to the government of the golden oak chiffonier, circa 1904, left to you by your late Aunt Milly, and we will be glad to find a place for it in the White House. In going through one of the drawers, I stumbled across 37 old shares of AT&T stock which your aunt apparently had hidden there. I return it to you herewith."

The Nation Today

James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fidel Castro has been left like a frog on a lily pad, wondering whether it's going to rain or shine. The water around him is muddy and muddled.

President Kennedy put strings on his pledge not to invade Cuba. He seems to interpret them one way, Soviet Premier Khrushchev another. This came up again Wednesday. So, while there has been no shooting, there may be shouting.

Direct invasion seems unlikely. It would mean another crisis with Russia. But the United States did not promise not to try to overthrow Castro by other means short of invasion. In fact, it indicated it would try.

The Kennedy-Khrushchev differences over the no-invasion pledge bubbled to the surface again in two places half a world apart when Khrushchev talked to the Soviet Parliament in Moscow and Kennedy had a news conference.

The only way to examine the differences is to look at the calendar.

In the week of the Cuban crisis, when Kennedy and Khrushchev were firing letters at each other, Kennedy wrote one on Oct. 27 interpreting a Khrushchev letter of Oct. 26 as promising to remove Soviet weapons from Cuba under "appropriate United Nations' observation and supervision" and to halt the flow of offensive weapons to Cuba.

If this was what Khrushchev promised, Kennedy said, the United States would lift its quarantine and pledge not to invade Cuba—provided Russia removed its weapons under U.N. supervision.

The next day, Oct. 28, Khrushchev wrote Kennedy that he accepted the President's word there would be no invasion of Cuba.

Two days later, Oct. 30, some Republican senators expressed uneasiness about the no-invasion pledge. They warned against any agreement that might provide a permanent Russian sanctuary in Cuba.

That same day Edwin M. Martin, assistant secretary of state for Inter-American Affairs, as if to quiet the uneasiness, said: "I don't recall seeing anything in the exchange which suggests a guarantee of the status quo."

Khrushchev began pulling the missiles out. But in telling Khrushchev he wanted all the offensive weapons removed, Kennedy apparently forgot to mention specifically this meant Soviet bombers, too. Khrushchev began removing them later.

Left up in the air was the problem of U.N. inspection in Cuba, the key provision in Kennedy's assurance against a Cuban invasion. Castro wouldn't permit the inspectors in Cuba.

Then on Nov. 20 Kennedy held his first news conference since the Cuban crisis began. He said the United States had promised to "give assurance against an invasion" once U.N. inspection had been established.

Since there was no such inspection, it could be argued, the no-invasion pledge wouldn't stand. Then Kennedy added a statement which was a clear warning to Castro he'd be up to his neck in trouble without an invasion.

Kennedy said: "We will not, of course, abandon the political, economic and other efforts of this hemisphere to halt subversion from Cuba, nor our purpose and hope that the Cuban people shall some day be truly free."

Things quieted down a while with the no-invasion pledge surrounded by clouds.

Khrushchev on Wednesday pledged himself to fulfill Soviet commitments in the Cuban settlement "so long as the other side stands by this understanding." By this time, of course, as the calendar shows, the American and Russian understandings didn't look like twins at all.

Khrushchev added: "But if the commitments assumed are not observed by the other side we shall be compelled to take such action as may be required by the situation."

Then he went on to explain to the Soviet people, his way, how he came to put the missiles in Cuba in the first place and then how he came to take them out.

This made the whole business, one of the Soviets' worst postwar blunders, look like one of the most honorable and peaceful events of modern times.

Some hours later at Kennedy's news conference a reporter—with the Khrushchev talk about commitments fresh in mind—asked the President where the no-invasion pledge stands now.

Inside You And Yours

By BURTON FERN, M. D.

Q. Does eating salt cause insomnia?

A: Some people feel floated when they eat too much salt. Blood pressure rises, your head throbs and you toss and turn all night.

The cure? Eat less salt — and sleep!

Q: Is coumarin (artificial vanilla flavoring) likely to cause cancer? I'm afraid to eat vanilla ice cream.

A: Coumarin isn't cancer-causing but it may harm the liver, so it's best left out of ordinary foods.

Coumarin is naturally found in sweet clover. The vanilla odor of certain canned peas stems from the coumarin-rich clover in which they were grown.

Drinking Gelatin

Q: Do you approve of my drinking ¼ package of unflavored gelatin in milk twice daily?

A: Some women have found gelatin a rich source of protein to harden splitting nails. If you eat a balanced diet with meat, fish, fowl and dairy foods, you shouldn't need extra protein.

But even if gelatin doesn't help, it doesn't hurt!

Q: What are some protein-rich meat substitutes?

A: Fish, fowl and dairy foods; also soya, beans, peas, nuts and gelatin.

Slimming In Spots

Q: Can you recommend a diet to slim down my hips and build up my bust?

A: No. A slimming diet slims you all over. You can't lose weight here and put it on there without plastic surgery!

Q: Can overy - vitaminizing cause falling hair? I'm the only balding female in the family.

A: Poisoning from 100,000 units of vitamin A daily can thin out hair. But so can tough nylon bristles when you brush vigorously. Over - vitaminizing is rarely guilty.

Dear Abby:

by Abigail Van Buren

He Needs Enlightenment!

DEAR ABBY: I am married to an outdoor man. In the summer it's fishing and in the winter it's hunting. Don't get me wrong. I want him to enjoy life, but is it asking too much of him to spend ONE Sunday a month with me and the children? I would like him to take us to a movie and have dinner out once a month. He leaves every Saturday at sun - up and doesn't come back until late on Sunday. Then he hands me the car keys and says, "Here—take the kids to a show so I can sleep." Am I being unreasonable?

SPORTSMAN'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Not in my opinion. How about this approach: "Look, Dear, if you don't want to waste any of your spare time on me that's OK, I'll always be around, both wiser and sadder. But the kids are growing up and away from you. Soon they'll be gone. You'll have memories of hunting and fishing, but none of your family. That'll be an open space in your life that you won't like. Think it over before it's too late."

DEAR ABBY: What is your opinion of a woman who works out when she has 4 children at home under the age of 5

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: She is either desperately and unfortunately eager to get out of the house or she desperately and unfortunately needs the income.

DEAR ABBY: We have a 7-year-old daughter who is a very lonely and quiet child. She has no friends. I am unable to have any more children and want to adopt a little girl the same age as our own. My husband thinks it would be better to adopt a child a few years younger. And a boy! I can't see where this would provide our daughter with the compainionship she needs. Can you advise me Or perhaps some of your readers have some helpful opinions on the subject.

MRS. F.

DEAR MRS. F.: I agree with your husband. To force a "twin" could create problems of jealousy, rivalry and continual competition for both girls. Try for a younger child. And a boy might be just what the doctor ordered.

Round About Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

Apparently one of the good foods which dates back to Biblical times is comparatively little known to the rank and file of Americans.

Lentils belong to the pea and bean family, and are rich in iron, high in calcium and a good source of vitamin B, according to those familiar with the food.

Like garbenzos or chick peas, which are among the staple foods in the Balkan states and some other countries, lentils seem to have originated in Asia or eastern Europe.

Lentils come dry or packed in cans like peas and beans. They are prepared in much the same way.

Suppose we take a look at what Webster says about lentils:

"A widely cultivated Eurasian plant, grown for its flattened, lens-shaped seeds, which are cooked like peas or beans and are also ground into meal.

"The leafy stalks also are used for fodder.

"The lentils of the Scriptures probably included several other vetch-like plants."

Lentils are delicious and one does not have to "learn to eat them".

GLOW WORMS GLOW

Although it has been real winter, with the mercury well down in the tube and several inches of snow covering the ground, one may still see fireflies oor "lightning bugs" which we naturally associate with the late spring or early summer.

These fireflies, the female of which is wingless, are also known as "glow worms". They may be found at the present time in favorable locations a few inches to one foot below the surface.

To find them one must necessarily use a spade or shovel in the darkness, and sometimes the first spadefull of earth turned up will contain one or more of the glowing lights which show in the darkness.

These "glow worms" may be the wingless female, or the male firefly in the larvae stage which will remain in the ground until time for them to come forth during the warm nights of summer. The females or "glow worms" remain on the ground, and the winged males take to the air to display their mysterious lights.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

The Second World Was was moving relentlessly onward with results favoring the Allies on all fronts, and disaster facing German forces in North Africa.

Allied forces again repelled Japanese attempts to land more soldiers in New Guinea.

U. S. planes were proving their superiority over German, Italian and Japanese aircraft, and new and mightier planes were being readied for overseas service.

Gen. Douglas McArthur was personally directing activities in New Guinea.

U. S. paratroopers and tanks were playing important parts in war in Tunisian area.

New registrants 18 and 19 years old were to be inducted into service in January.

Fuel oil and kerosene were being rationed as well as gasoline.

Income from gasoline tax was greatly reduced due to war restrictions.

An old overhead structure across alley between the Burke Block and the old Music Hall Block, originally used for moving buggies and carriages across from the Burke Building where a factory was located, to the painting rooms on west side of alley, was being wrecked by the city as a safety measure.

Right-of-way for the government's 24-inch pipeline from Texas to the East Coast was being taken here and construction was to be pushed during the winter so that 300,000 barrels of oil could be moved through line daily as a war emergency measure.

The Pennsylvania Railroad was granted permission to remove the flasher warning lights, on large "islands" of concrete in the middle of Fayette and Main Sts., on agreement to use train crewmen as guards at the crossings when in use.

Chester A. Hall, 57, who operated the Washington Handle Factory here, died.

The home of County Auditor and Mrs. Roy Baughn, on the Lewis Rd., was damaged by fire.

Fayette County received $2,834 from closed banks, in unclaimed principal and dividends, and some $3,300 more was expected to come into the county treasury from the Ohio State Bank funds.

Fifty additional Fayette County registrants who went to Ft. Hayes, Columbus, were singing "Praise The Lord and Pass the Ammunition" as they left. Twenty-one others were sent to Ft. Thomas, Ky.

New stickers for auto wind - shields, issued to help pay the war costs, were to be in place by January 1.

A terrific blast at Kings Mills, felt here, killed two men, wrecked a building, and injured several more workers.

In a dance hall fire at St. Johns, Newfoundland, 110 people lost their lives, many of them trampled to death.

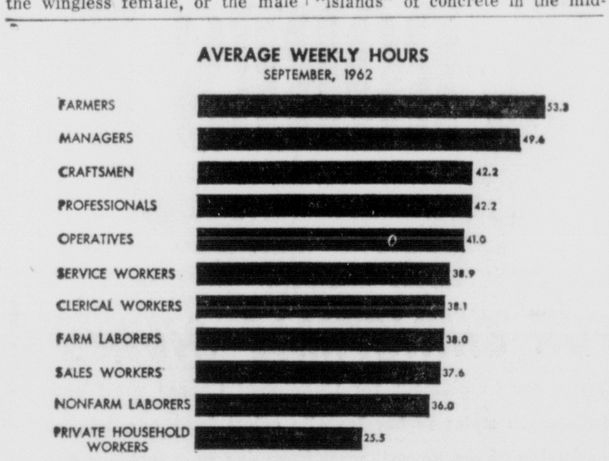

The combined choirs of the city, organized 11 years earlier, presented "The Messiah" at Grace Church, under the direction of Ralph Lloyd.

Earl Hughes, 58, a carpenter who was seriously hurt when a scaffold collapsed the previous April died of his injuries.

Dr. F. G. Lightner, 75, who practised medicine in Sabina 50 years, died.

A new class of men, 38 to 45 years, was to be created soon due to the demand for more and more manpower to win the war.

A four-room tenant house on Warren Hicks farm, Miami Trace Rd., was destroyed by fire.

JFK To Break Ground For World's Fair

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy will take part in groundbreaking ceremonies at the site of the 1964 New York World's Fair on Friday, the White House announced today.

Kennedy will speak briefly at the event after landing early Friday afternoon in New York, where he will address the Economic Club that night.

Kennedy expects to return to Washington sometime Saturday.

Mrs. Kennedy and their two children plan to fly from the capital Friday to Palm Beach, Fla., to begin an extended Christmas vacation. The President will join them on Dec. 20 after his conference with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan near Nassau in the Bahamas.

TODAY

In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Thursday, Dec. 13, the 347th day of 1962. There are 18 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this day in 1918, President Woodrow Wilson reached Brest, France, where he was received with ceremony en route to Versailles to participate in the peace negotiations following World War I.

On this day:

In 1577, Sir Frances Drake sailed from Plymouth, England, to begin his round-the-world voyage.

In 1784, English lexicographer Samuel Johnson died.

In 1864, Gen. William Hazen stormed Fort McAllister and Gen. William Sherman laid siege to Savannah during the Civil War.

In 1916, an avalanche in the Alps killed more than 9,000 Austro-Hungarian troops.

In 1954, President Harry S. Truman announced his support for President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower's policy of patience in dealing with Communist China.

Today's birthdays:

Actress Lillian Roth is 52. Anthropologist Oliver La Farge is 61.

Educational TV On Air

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio University's educational television station, WOUB-TV, will begin telecasting audio and video test signals Dec. 17 and actual broadcasting programs on Thursday, Jan. 3. At 7 p.m. that date the first program will be a documentary, "The Building of a TV Station."

AT THE FAYETTE—It's the eternal triangle and Elvis Presley is right smack in the middle in his new movie "Girls! Girls! Girls!" now showing at the Fayette Theatre. Vying for his affections are Laurel Goodwin, exciting new screen personality and Stella Stevens in this Hal Wallis, Technicolor extravaganza that includes TV star Jeremy Slate in its cast.

Psychiatrist Sues Over Wrong Listing

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — There's a difference between psychiatry and psychology and a Columbus psychiatrist has filed a $35,000 suit to prove it.

Dr. Ivan G. Podobnikar took his problem to Franklin County Common Pleas Court today in a suit against the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. because the telephone book lists him as psychologist rather than a psychiatrist.

He states he recently opened a new office in the general practice of psychiatry and was listed by the phone company as a psychologist. Dr. Podobnikar claims the improper listing has caused him to suffer "scorn, jest . . . from the medical profession . . . and loss to his business because patients are unable to accurately contact him."

ITS RELIABILITY COMES FROM ITS QUALITY

A nutshell description of Chevrolet trucks could be "Trucks That Work". It's not exactly earthshaking but it says a mouthful. It's what Chevrolet trucks are best known for—their reliability. Ready to work, day after day, whenever you are.

You can't build trucks that perform like this if you don't put quality into engine, chassis and body. Chevrolet does: double-wall construction, insulated cab, select-wood body floor, chain-supported tailgate, ladder-type frame, the careful attention to upholstery and finish. It's this kind of quality that makes any Chevrolet truck—from pickup to heavyweight tandem—worth more on the average at trade-in!

Installation Of Officers Held By Jefferson Chapter

Members of Jefferson Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, installed officers at the meeting in the Masonic Temple at Jeffersonville.

Mrs. Roger Whitley, retiring worthy matron, opened the meeting in regular form. Mrs. Marie L. Hamilton, Circleville, past grand matron, Mrs. Catherine Baird Jefferson chapter, deputy grand matron of district 23, and Mrs. Donald Denen, of Forest chapter, Bloomingburg, and grand representative of Oregon, were escorted to the East and accorded appropriate honors. Past matrons and patrons were also introduced.

After thanking the members for their co-operation during the past year, Mrs. Whitley presented the gavel to Mrs. Hamilton, installing grand officer, who presided during the installation. Other installing grand officers were: marshall, Mrs. Ruth Junk, of Concord; and conductress, Mrs. Paul Knisley; chaplain, Mrs. Robert Owens; organist ,Mrs. Robert Bowen; warder, Mrs. John Ritenour: and Mr. John Ritenour, sentinel, all of Jefferson chapter.

The chapter room was beautifully decorated with Christmas appointments. Favors of miniature bells were presented each guest. The theme of the worthy matron was depicted on a white Bible with the words, "Love and Service' in yellow roses. Her motto is "A Friend Loveth At All Times."

The following officers were installed: Mrs. Virgil Hardman, worthy matron; Mr. George Reedy, worthy patron; Mrs. Harry Allen, associate matron; Mr. Harry Allen associate patron; Mrs. George Reedy, secretary; Mrs. Harold Zimmerman, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Bonner conductress;

Mrs. Hobert Coil, associate conductress; Mrs. Wayne Dowler, chaplain; Mrs. Ernest Jenks, marshal; Mrs. Kenneth Spahr, organist; Mrs. Gordon McCarty, Adah; Mrs. Ralph Detty, Ruth; Mrs. Harold Anderson, Esther; Mrs. Joe Hidy, Martha; Miss Margaret Binegar, Electa; Mrs. Jack Pursley, warder and Mr. Jack Pursley, sentinel.

Miss Helen Fults conducted the Star Point addenda. The title of the ceremony was "Ringing Christmas Bells."

Mr. and Mrs. Max Morrow sang a duet, "And There Were Shepherds,' with Mrs. Bowen the accompanist.

Pages were Mrs. Whitley and Mrs. George Smith. Prompters were Mrs. Florence Seibert and Mr. John Baird.

Upon assuming office, the new worthy matron invited the junior past matron, Mrs. Whitley to the East. Mrs. Baird then presented her a past matron's jewel, a gift of the chapter. Mr. Baird presented a gift of appreciation to junior past patron, Mr. George Reedy.

Members were then invited to the dining room for a social hour. Appointments of yellow and white were used on the refreshment table. Mrs. Whitley and Mrs. Seibert were at the coffee and tea services.

The refreshments committee was composed of Mrs. Myrtle Williams, Mrs. Marie Runyan, Mrs. Dale Davidson, Mrs. Marie Thompson and Mrs. Ruth Williams.

Miss Hall is a graduate of Jeffersonville High School and is a senior at Miami University, Oxford, where she will graduate in February.

Mr. Kesner, also a graduate of Jeffersonville High School, is now attending Berea College, Berea, Ky.

The open church wedding will be solemnized in the Jeffersonville Church of Christ Dec. 22 at 2 p.m.

BPO Does Hold Final Meeting

Mrs. D. D. Weinrich, president, opened the final meeting of the year of the BPO Does in ritualistic form at the Elks Lodge rooms on Tuesday night.

Reports were given by Mrs. John Fisher, secretary and Mrs. Margaret Helfrich, treasurer. Committee chairmen also gave their reports.

Officers for the coming year were elected with Mrs. Jack Armstrong, president; Mrs. R. H. Stoddard, first counselor; Mrs. Homer McCoy, senior counselor; Mrs. Lester Johnson Jr., counselor; Mrs. Jack Smith, inner guard; Mrs. Donald Campbell, outer guard; Miss Marian Osborn, conductor and Mrs. Weinrich, three year trustee.

Plans were completed for the Christmas plans for the "adopted" family and members contributed to the Coin March.

Mrs. Weinrich closed the meeting in regular form and a gift exchange followed.

Delicious refreshments were served from a table, centered with tall red candles, surrounded by greenery and decorations. The committee of the evening was made up of Mrs. C. S. Kelley, Mrs. Virtus Kruse, Mrs. M. Z. Klever, and Mrs. Lester Johnson.

Four-fifths of British Guiana is forest.

Christmas Party Held By Card Club

Mrs. Howard Fogle was hostess to members of her bridge club Tuesday night for the Christmas party and gift exchange.

Following dinner at the Terrace Lounge, members went to the home of Mrs. Fogle, where prizes in the bride games of the evening were won by Mrs. McCoy Gardner, Mrs. John Forsythe and Mrs. Stanley Chitty.

A gift exchange was enjoyed by the members already mentioned and Mrs. Henry Brownell, Mrs. G. B. Vance, Mrs. Walter Morrow and Mrs. L. M. Hayes.

Christmas Party Is Held By True Blue Class

The annual Christmas party of the True Blue Class of Grace Methodist Church was held Tuesday night in Fellowship Hall, beautifully decorated for the Christmas season.

Mrs. Dena Haines, the class president, presented Mrs. Arch O. Riber, who had charge of the devotions. She gave two very impressive Christmas stories, "The Little Match Girl," which was adapted from the original story by Hans Christian Anderson, and "The Christmas Scout", also called "The Mysterious Visitor," by Samuel D. Bogan.

Mrs. George B. Stitt was in charge of the program. She introduced Miss Ann Cunningham, a vocal pupil of Mrs. W. S. Paxson, who sang "The Birthday of the King," "There's a Song in the Air" and "World's Prayer." Mrs. Stitt sang 'What of that Midnight Long Ago." They were both accompanied by Mrs. Paxson.

The program was closed by the group singing several Christmas carols, accompanied by Miss Marian Christopher.

Following the program, a gift exchange and social hour was enjoyed.

Guests with the 24 members were Mrs. Helen Weir, of Santa Barbara, Calif., Mrs. Charles Cunningham, Miss Ann Cunningham, Mrs. Paxson, and Mrs. Ethel Caldwell.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Glen L. Smith, Mrs. Walter Orr, Mrs. Riber, Mrs. Stitt, Mrs. Loren D. Hynes, Mrs. Marlyn Riley, Mrs. C. F. Lucas, Miss Lena Smith, Mrs. Thelma Rhoads, Mrs. W. D. Shepard, Mrs. Harold Slagle, Miss Adah Rechenbach, Miss Eloise Whitsel, Mrs. Ralph Taylor, and Mrs. Martin Crone.

Job's Daughters Plan Inspection

The semi-annual inspection of Job's Daughters will be held at 7:30 p. m. Monday in Hays Hall. Mrs. Bonita K. Ochsner, of Cincinnati, grand guardian of Ohio, will be the inspecting officer. A dinner at the Masonic Temple at 6 p. m. will precede the meeting.

Miss Penny Noble, of Bloomingburg, is the honored queen. Mrs. John Ritenour is the guardian and Mr. Archie McCullough is the associate guardian.

Tuesday Kensington Club Luncheon

Mrs. Hazel Devins entertained members of the Tuesday Kensington Club at her home for a luncheon and Christmas party Tuesday.

Green candles in silver holders and holly were used on the table for the serving of the delicious luncheon.

A gift exchange was held and social hour was enjoyed by Mrs. John Morton, Mrs. C. D. Young, Mrs. Grace Goodwin, Mrs. John MacIver, Mrs. C. S. Haver, Mrs. Walter Ellis, Mrs. Fred Woollard, Mrs. Blanche Biehn and Mrs. O. D. Farquhar.

Modern Conveniences Brought To Kentucky

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The Rural Electrification Administration has granted loans of $214.3 million to electric consumers and $39.9 million for construction of telephone exchanges in Kentucky durings its 27-year history.

During the current fiscal year, REA loans will bring electricity to 6,594 families and telephone service to 6,043 customers.

New CCL Chapter Has Christmas Dinner Party

Members of the newly organized "Grades to Grads" chapter of Child Conservation League, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Douce Tuesday night for supper and a Christmas party. Husbands of the members were guests. Decorations throughout the home emphasized the Christmas season.

The delicious turkey dinner was served buffet style. Members and guests found their places at small tables, centered with miniature Christmas trees and snowmen surrounded with greenery.

A short business meeting, was conducted by the president, Mrs. Earl Eltzroth, when the secretary's report was given by Mrs. Charles Roush.

Committee chairmen appointed by Mrs. Eltzroth were: Mrs. Douce, librarian; Mrs. Tommy Sams, membership; Mrs. Carl Cramer, scrapbook; ways and means, Mrs. Ronald Hidy and Mrs. Donald Crabtree; telephone, Mrs. William Copas; legislative, Mrs. James Paisley; flower and gift, Mrs. Harold Cruea and Mrs. Harold Summers.

The president announced that installation ceremonies for the chapter will be held at 8 p.m. Jan 8 in her home.

The remainder of the evening was spent playing canasta and in having a gift exchange.

The Douces were assisted during the evening by Mrs. Copas.

Women's Association Holds Final Meeting Wednesday

The last meeting of the Women's Association, First Presbyterian Church, was held in Persinger Hall Wednesday evening. Mrs. William Allen opened the meeting by reading the Scripture and "One Solitary Life." Carol singing, with Mrs. C. H. Morrison at the piano, followed. The annual reports of the departments and committees were given during the business meeting, and a contribution made to the United Church Women of Fayette County for the clothing project.

Honorary memberships were presented to Mrs. Helen Whitfield (her daughter, Mrs. Charles Wallace accepting for her) in ecumenical missions and to Mrs. William C. Allen in national missions. These are presented in recognition of self contribution to the work of the association. Mrs. I. L. Pumphrey gave a memorial for the members who have died during the past year.

Officers for the coming year were installed in a beautiful service conducted by Mrs. Ormond Dewey.

They are: Mrs. Herbert Clickner, president; Mrs. P. M. Cook, first vice president; Miss Marie Marchant, secretary; Mrs. David Adams, assistant secretary; Miss Kathleen Stuckey, treasurer; Mrs. William Allen, program chairman; Mrs. Louise Townsend, missionary education; Mrs. C. S. Kelley, social education; Mrs. W. Neil Hand, spiritual life and stewardship; literature, Mrs. L. M. Hays; world service chairman, Mrs. John Wiley; national missions, Mrs. Perce Harlow; ecumenical missions, Mrs. Carl Smith; Christian education, Mrs. George Kratz; national and overseas sewing, Mrs. Walter Coil; fellowship, Mrs. Irwin Reeves; evangelism, Mrs. Albert Bryant; Circle leaders are Mrs. Peter Smeltzer, Mrs. Charles Hire, Mrs. Morrison, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Lee Lynch, Mrs. Richard Rankin, and Mrs. Pumphrey.

Mrs. Herbert Clickner announced her committees for the year and spoke of the plans for the coming year.

The program, a playlet entitled "The Cradle, The Cross and The Crown," was arranged by Mrs. W. Neil Hand and Mrs. Morrison. Characters were portrayed by Mrs. Hand, Mrs. Morrison, Mrs. Pumphrey, and Miss Marie Marchant against a Nativity scene, provided by Mr. Charles V. Sexton.

Music during the program was by Mrs. Russell Spaulding, soloist, and congregational singing of Christmas carols with Mrs. John P. Case at the piano. The singing of "Silent Night" closed the impressive service.

A social hour followed with members of Circle One, with Mrs. Peter Smeltzer as leader, serving refreshments. The tea table was centered with a cluster of candles in Christmas colors, made by Mrs. Smeltzer, and green boughs. Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Clickner served the coffee and tea from the service recently given by the MHG Class.

Fires Level Homes In New Vienna, Clarksville Areas

WILMINGTON — Fires Tuesday night and early Wednesday near New Vienna and in Clarksville destroyed the homes of eight people and appeals for clothing, bedding, furniture and food were issued immediately.

New Vienna Fire Chief Frank West reported that his department sent two pumpers, a tanker and 12 mem to the burning home of James Turner in Gest settlement in Highland County, about three miles southeast of New Vienna. Driven out into the near-zero evening were Turner, his expectant wife, two sons and three daughters.

The second fire was reported to Clarksville Fire Chief Ed Rosenberger at 12:55 a. m. Wednesday. Dispatched were a pumper, tanker and 12 men to the Sugartree St. one - story, two - room wood frame home of Mrs. Christy Royce, a widow.

Inside Letter Of Law But What About Safety?

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) — "Was I going too fast?" the worried teen-ager asked when stopped by a Cheyenne police officer.

"Nope, but you're a little overloaded," the officer replied.

"Yes, but we aren't violating the law," the teen - ager said. "We've got only three people in the front seat."

The officer scratched his head and agreed the high school youth was legally right.

"But," he added, "you'd better start unloading a few in the back seat. Eleven kids in the back seat is too many."

Supreme Court Voids '13 Law On School District Employes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state supreme court Wednesday declared unconstitutional a 1913 law giving municipal civil service commissions authority over city school district employes.

The unanimous decision came in a suit by Mary E. Karrick and seven other non-teaching employes of the Findlay School District to determine their status under rules of the Findlay Commission revised in 1960.

Common Pleas Court termed the rules void on grounds the administrative procedures act was not followed in their adoption. An appellate court affirmed, but for the reason that section 143.30, Revised Code, is unconstitutional. The high court upheld the appellate court.

"In the absence of legislative authority to extend civil service to city school districts, Section 143.30, Revised Code, is unconstitutional insofar as it applies to city school districts," the Supreme Court held.

It was explained that under the constitutional provision of section 10, Article XV, authorizing the legislature to pass laws for Appointments and promotions in the civil service of the state, the several counties and cities," the enumeration of specified matters necessarily excludes any other matter.

Attorneys express belief that the decision also applied to city health districts, included in the 1913 law, although they were not mentioned specifically.

The Findlay district employes, with 1-18 year service records, had not taken civil service examinations. The 1960 revised rules required non-teaching employees of the board of education to be residents of the school district within certain age limits and to take civil service examinations scheduled for April 20, 1960. Their declaratory judgment suit followed.

10 Cities Offering Technical Education

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ten Ohio communities now have post high school technical education programs, including four—Ashtabula, Hamilton, Springfield and Willoughby—which started theirs this year.

The Education Department noted in a report Wednesday that the first such program was started four years ago in Barberton. Others have been added since at Lorain, Salem, Cleveland, Canton and Mansfield.

Seal Campaign $1,000 Short

Monday 'Do It Day' For Contributions

With the Christmas Seal campaign now only about $1,000 from its $5,200 goal, Monday has been designated as "Do It Day" by the Fayette County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Clyde Cramer, vice president, explained that "Do It Day" would be a good day for those who have not yet made their contributions for the Christmas Seals to get them in the mail or take them to the association office, 132½ E. Court St. The campaign is scheduled to end Dec. 31.

At the end of the first month of the campaign, contributions amounting to $4,279.54 have been received from 2,056 of the 5,282 homes and places of business which were sent 300 Seals each on Nov. 13. Replies without contributions have been received from 128 others.

One contribution was for $2.04; apparently the thoughtful contributor had given the 4 cents to cover the postage it took to send the reminder last week. The association volunteer office staff and directors were impressed, not so much by the 4 cents as by the spirit.

CRAMER pointed out that the money raised by the sale of Christmas Seals supports the year-round program of free chest X-rays, tuberculine tests, medical research, health education, aid to TB patients and their rehabilitation through the county association.

Research funds have been increased in recent years. Scientists are developing a new rapid and accurate test for infection, are working on a new vaccine, and conducting a study with drugs to see if they will prevent inactive disease and simple infections from developing into active tuberculosis.

"The answer to the many problems facing us," Cramer said, "can be met by whole hearted support of the Christmas Seal campaign by everyone in Fayette County."

Katharine Hepburn Found Challenge In O'Neill Play

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Ideas shoot from Katharine Hepburn like sparks from a grinding wheel. So when she is talking it's best merely to sit back and listen.

That Hepburn wanted to talk was not unusual. That she would talk for publication was extraordinary, since she has been elusive for reporters in recent years.

The reason for talking was to help along "Long Day's Journey into Night," the much-heralded film from Eugene O'Neill's autobiographical play.

"I think it deserves a hearing," she said resolutely. "It's a fine piece of work, a truly great play. I think it's encouraging that such a serious film can be done at a reasonable figure and that its commercial prospects are good.

"I was delighted to do it. It was a real challenge, making use a range of dramatics that I have never shown on the screen before. O'Neill had a depth that is simply marvelous."

The actress lives in a curious area amid the high rent district in upper Beverly Hills. It is a cliff-hanging apartment adjacent to an estate. She explained:

"It used to be Jack Barrymore's. Dear Jack, he was so kind to me. I did my first picture with him—'Bill of Divorcement.' The lower part of this place used to be his projection room." She showed me a stained-glass door leading to what is now her bedroom. Pictured in it were Barrymore and his second wife, Dolores Costello.

Hepburn settled in one of the chairs she had made herself in the upstairs sitting room, a marvelously lighted room with large windows and skylights. And she talked. Here in abbreviated form are some of the things she said:

"I must say that we had a great era in films. There were real stars in those days, and real characters. We were expected to be a bit wayward, and that added to the aura.

"There were great stars in the group before me, too. I think they and we had something that the actors lack today: vitality. Everything seemed tremendously important to us, and we worked like dogs at our jobs.

"I don't believe in all this confessing in public. It seems to me that the public appreciates a certain mystery. The producers did that in the old days. Take Maude Adams, for example. The public was never allowed to know what she was really like.

"I don't like the way women are portrayed by the new dramatists. I can't believe they are the pinched, lecherous, scheming females they seem to be in those plays.

"Maybe it's because my mother was an ardent feminist. Anyway, I've always had a great admiration for women. They've brought a lot of softness and beauty into the world. For hundreds of years they have made unattractive men think that they are appealing, and that's an act of kindness. . . ."

Glenn Honorary Attorney General

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr., the astronaut, will become an honorary Ohio attorney general.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Glenn Sr. of New Concord, will accept a plaque today from Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy conferring the honorary title on their son.

McElroy said the plaques are issued to his assistants for their services and to a few outstanding Ohioans.

School Levy Passes

CINCINNATI (AP)—North College Hill voters have approved a special 4.52-mill school levy. The levy, needing 55 per cent approval, passed Wednesday by 60.5 per cent. The levy had been defeated in November when only 48 per cent favored it.

County To Receive $13,684 For Relief

Fayette County is to receive $13,684.45, in an advance distribution of $5 million in poor relief money from the state, according to an announcement by State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

The money is to be sent to the counties of Ohio about one week before Christmas.

The distribution of shares to Fayette's neighbor counties is reported as follows: Clinton, $14,571.30; Greene, $33,461.40; Highland, $10,623.65; Madison, $12,594,40; Pickaway, $21,354.30; Ross $25,610.65.

Already some counties and cities are running low on relief funds and have been phoning the state auditor's office to ask whether the advance distribution will be made.

The money comes from the 1.65 per cent excise tax paid by public utilities since 1933 for poor relief. Normally this money has been distributed around Feb. 1, but in 1958 Rhodes made an advance distribution in December to meet an emergency then existing and the practice has been continued each December since then. The balance due the counties will be made early in 1963.

Loveland Imposes 1 Pct. Income Tax

CINCINNATI (AP) — Suburban Loveland, a city of just over 5,000, has enacted a one per cent city income tax ordinance.

Effective Jan. 1, it carries no exemption to residents who, like many of their neighbors, work in Cincinnati and for years have been subject to that city's one per cent income levy.

2 Man-Made Lakes Planned

NEWARK, Ohio (AP) — Army engineers are giving "detailed consideration" to a plan to create two large man-made lakes north of here as part of a flood control program for the Newark area.

Tom Whitman, project engineer for the Corps of Engineers, said a survey now under way on the proposal should be completed by next March.

One project would be located three to four miles north of Utica. It calls for a 3,500-acre reservoir on the north fork of the Licking River which would include a 1,500-acre pool for summer recreation, Whitman said.

The other would be between Johnstown and Alexandria. Preliminary plans call for a flood control pool of about 800 acres and a permanent pool of 350 acres.

President Plans Further Economic Squeeze On Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has decided to impose penalties on non-Communist shipping engaged in trade with Cuba, chiefly by denying American cargoes to the vessels.

New regulations are expected to be put into effect in about two weeks.

The President's move, disclosed Wednesday at a news conference, involves reviving plans that were shelved when the Cuban crisis broke in October.

Thus, the United States is reverting to its pre-crisis policy of putting an increasingly tight economic squeeze on the Castro regime in Cuba and, at the same time, making the cost of Soviet support for that regime as high as possible.

Kennedy also made two other major points about the Cuban situation:

1. He hopes that negotiations going on between U.S. and Soviet representatives in New York "will come to some conclusion in the not too distant future." Meanwhile the United States intends to maintain its vigilance against the reintroduction of Soviet offensive weapons into the island. This was the substance of the President's reaction to Soviet Premier Khrushchev's speech in Moscow Wednesday claiming Soviet policy had been victorious in Cuba.

2. It is the "best judgment" of the U.S. government that Soviet nuclear missiles and jet bombers "have been removed from Cuba" but "these things are never 100 per cent" certain. The United States is still insisting on direct verification of the removal of the weapons and on safeguards against their re-introduction.

Khrushchev suggested in his Moscow speech that the conditions exist for clearing up the differences between the United States and the Soviet Union on Cuba. He emphasized that he expects the President to live up to his offer of a no-invasion pledge.

The President said he had not analyzed and did not wish to comment specifically on Khrushchev's statements.

JAMES E. JONES

Brothers, Sister On West Coast Navy Duty

Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Jones, 1040 Broadway, can point to a "Navy Family".

Their daughter, Nellie L., and their two sons, William W. and James E., are all in Uncle Sam's seafaring service and lately have been within hailing distance of each other on the West Coast.

Last weekend the three got together for the first time as service personnel at San Diego, Calif.

Bill and Jim will sail Jan. 3 for Japan, Hong Kong and the Philippines, but Nellie, a Wave, will remain in San Diego. Bill has been in service since June 21, 1960, Jim since June 13 of last year and Nellie since July 5 of last year.

The two brothers are stationed aboard the same ship. Their address is U.S.S. Jason AR-8, Div. R-1, c—p F.P.O., San Francisco. Friends should add S.F.P.F.N. after Bill's name, and FA-5908691 after Jim's.

Their sister's address is Nellie L. Jones, S.A. 590833 W, Box 127, U. S. Naval Station, San Diego.

Cold Weather Hikes Prices Of Florida-Grown Produce

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

That sharp nip in the air means quickened Christmas shopping, heartier season cheer and, alas, higher produce prices.

Housewives may not see too many signs of change at supermarkets this weekend, but there are several indications of seasonal jumps.

An unusual cold snap in Florida this week damaged thousands of acres of peppers, celery, eggplant, tomatoes, beans and sweet corn. This may well be translated later into higher prices in stores over the nation.

The heavy budget items of meats and poultry, however, have not risen and many good bargains are available.

Pork is especially attractive in many stores. Loin roasts, chops, smoked picnics, smoked butts and bacon are special attractions.

Beef bargains include chuck roasts, sirloin and round steaks, ground beef, stew beef, and short ribs.

Turkeys are flowing into the market from cold storage and many markets reported lower prices. Broiler-fryers continue a good buy.

At vegetable counters currently, best buys are in cabbage, carrots, sweet potatoes, squash, potatoes, onions and lettuce. Regional attractions include broccoli, kale, mushrooms, spinach, collards, radishes, eggplant and rutabagas.

Touchy Skybolt Program Hangs On Kennedy-Macmillan Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—The fate of the Skybolt missile program, subject of the hottest U.S.-British argument in years, hangs precariously on next week's meeting between President Kennedy and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan—and this country's military budget.

Tentative American plans to give up on the expensive missile—around which Britain has shaped its nuclear strategy—has brought a sharp reaction from Britain and put a strain on the alliance.

When asked about the Skybolt dispute at his news conference Wednesday, Kennedy spokes cautiously.

1. He was sure it would be discussed when he meets with Macmillan in the Bahamas Dec. 19-20. The United States is now reviewing its budget for the new fiscal year. No final decision will be made until these matters have been completed.

2. The United States has put a half-billion dollars into the program so far. To complete it and buy the missiles might require $2.5 billion more. Five tests of the 1,100-mile range ballistic missile for launching from bombers have not been successful.

"So—there really is the question of how much it is worth to the British and ourselves to put in that kind of money when we have competing claims for our available funds," the President said.

Kennedy characterized the Skybolt as "the most sophisticated weapon imaginable. To fire a missile from a plane moving at high speed to hit a target 1,000 miles away requires the most advanced engineering and, of course, it has been really, in a sense, the kind of engineering that's been beyond us."

British experts don't believe the Skybolt is a flop. They feel the initial troubles can be overcome.

Kennedy noted that Britain has a "very important equity in the matter."

Cleveland Hit Hard By Lack Of Newspapers

CLEVELAND (AP) — Without newspapers for 14 days and struggling amid the worst winter weather in a dozen years, nearly two million Cleveland - area residents are waging a daily battle to keep informed.

What they want to know is not primarily news from Washington, or India or the state capital at Columbus—but answers to such near-to - home questions as:

Will Rosedale school have classes for juniors to attend today:

Is the factory where dad works going to operate the third shift?

Are buses running on Lorain Avenue so mother can go downtown to do her Christmas shopping?

Radio and television stations stepped up news coverage when the morning Plain Dealer and afternoon Cleveland Press and News were struck Nov. 29 by the truck drivers. The Teamsters returned to work this week under a civic committee truce proposal, but the Cleveland Newspaper Guild, which struck Nov. 30, is continuing on strike.

Some 15 inches of snow driven into mountainous drifts by high winds buried the city last Thursday night, and additional snowfalls followed.

Notice of schools closing, bus schedules, road conditions and factory shutdowns have flooded radio and television newsrooms, where enlarged staffs have been enlarged still more and worked overtime to keep up with additional newscasts.

Westinghouse's KYW radio and TV stations—largest in newsroom manpower — have added 12 full-time regular newsmen from the struck papers to a normal staff of 20 and all the regular newsmen are working overtime. Newscasts have increased from 20 to 30 a day and lengthened.

Person - to-person communication bogged down the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., and the utility appealed to the public for patience get calls through.

Suburban papers have attempted to step into the breach. The weekly Heights Sun - Press and Messenger became a semi - weekly for the duration of the newspaper strike and its normal circulation of 60,000 was increased last Thursday to 75,000. But the extra 15,000 were sold at newsstands in its own East Side suburban area.

Similarly daily newspaers in Willoughby just to the east of the city, in Lorain on the west and in Akron on the south have had increases sales, but only in their normal circulation areas on the fringes of the city.

The Wall Street Journal, which prints part of the midwestern edition in Cleveland, said its sales in the whole area are up only 300.

Vincent Gallagher, assistant manager of a concern that operates six downtown newsstands said:

"We've lost 3,000 daily customers. These people just pass us by now. There has been some increase in sales of news magazines and TV Guide, but its not the same as newspapers."

The combination of snow-clogged roads and the absence of newspapers to carry the usual large advertisements has hurt Christmas business in the downtown department stores. Most of the stores have suburban branches which have reported increased trade.

No Progress Made In Cleveland Newspaper Talks

CLEVELAND (AP)— No progress toward ending a strike against this city's two daily newspapers was reported Wednesday following a meeting of a seven - member civic committee with Cleveland Newspaper Guild leaders and top executives of the papers.

The Guild had asked for direct talks with the publishers' principals instead of their negotiating team of attorneys, with members of the civic group sitting in.

A meeting of the regular negotiating teams in the contract dispute had been scheduled Wednesday but was postponed until today.

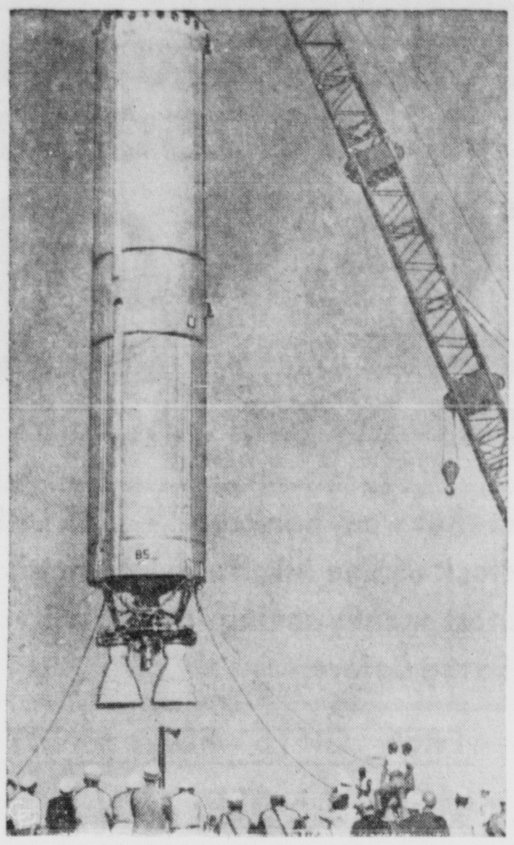

The newspapers have not published since Nov. 29, when Teamsters 473, representing 405 delivery drivers, set up picket lines at the two plants. The Guild joined the walkout the following day and its membership has voted to stay on strike until a satisfactory contract is ratified.

Principal issues in the dispute involving the Guild and the newspapers are job security, union security and wages.

DeJarnette Faces 2 U.S. Bank Indictments

CINCINNATI (AP)—John Kinchloe DeJarnette of Louisville, Ky. faces two federal indictments here in connection with the $37,232 robbery Oct. 22 of a branch of the Provident Bank.

He was charged with the robbery and in a second indictment was charged jointly with Robert E. Johnson Jr. of Cincinnati on a conspiracy count.

TITAN BECOMES OPERATIONAL—The first operational Titan II intercontinental ballistic missile is craned into an underground silo 25 miles southwest of Tucson, Ariz. There are 18 such missile sites in the Tucson area.

School Bus Drivers Ruled Subject To Retirement Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court has held that school bus drivers are employes subject to contributory payments to the School Employes Retirement System.

The court made the ruling Wednesday.

The Board of Education in North Canton Exempted District had challenged a rule by the school employes retirement board requiring contributions from all bus drivers. The North Canton action sought to recover $2,009 withheld from funds due the school board on orders of the retirement board.

Agena Program Moving To Ohio

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Agena program of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, with its associated Atlas and Thor boosters, is to be transferred to Cleveland from Huntsville, Ala.

The transfer plans were announced Wednesday by Dr. Abe Silverstein, director of NASA's Lewis Research Center here. He said Dr. Robert C. Seamans, associate administrator of NASA in Washington, had advised him the move was a step to streamline launch vehicle responsibilities of NASA's manned flight and space science programs.

Silverstein said Lewis now has about 4,000 workers and will require about 200 more engineers and technicians when the Agena program is transferred.

OSU Outside Speaker Issue Still In Panel

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State University's faculty advisory committee will consider for a second time a proposed revision in university rules regarding outside speakers appearing on campus.

The council returned to a committee Wednesday the first proposals which would have, in effect, given President Novice G. Fawcett authority to take such action as he deemed in the "best interests of the university."

Cactus on some Galapagos Islands evolved concurrently with cactus - eating tortoises. The reptiles eat the fallen pads and fruits of the cactus, but cannot harm the plants themselves, which have developed tough, woody trunks.

Not A Bad Beginning

NEWTON, Iowa (AP) — Paul Casper of Newton bought a new bow and arrow recently, and went deer hunting for the first time.

On his first shot he bagged a 140-pound deer.

JFK Seeks Aid Of Businessmen On Tax Cut Plan

Speech In New York Seen As An Effort To Allay Suspicions

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—President Kennedy appears set today to turn to business leaders for aid. And the help he wants from these largely conservative men is in dealing with conservative leaders of Congress who are getting their backs up over any tax cutting while the Treasury is running a deficit.

Business and the President have had their well - publicized differences this year. So he will have some underlying suspicions to allay when he talks here Friday night to the Economic Club of New York.

Many of the most important industrial and financial leaders of the nation will be in the audience. And many are critical of what they regard as the administration's less-than-ardent love for Big Business.

But on the question of tax cutting—if he talks about it as most of his prospective audience now think he will—President Kennedy can count on considerable support. At the same time there will be a lot of sympathy for the position of the conservatives in the new Congress who think that government spending should be cut right along with taxes, if not first.

The President's task then will be to persuade conservative businessmen to urge conservative congressional leaders to vote for the tax cuts he has promised to submit early in the coming session.

It will be a neat trick. Businessmen in general feel that taxes are too high and are holding back the economic growth desired to create jobs for everyone who really wants to work. They also feel that a balanced federal budget over the long pull is needed to keep the dollar healthy.

At the same time, many of them are well aware of how their own companies prosper when they get government orders. And some know to their sorrow how plants can be closed and men laid off when a government contract is lost or canceled.

So cuts in government spending are fine in principal when the aim is to balance the budget without piling the tax burden even higher. But the cuts can be pretty tough to take when a particular producer or worker is involved.

Few in the Friday night audience are likely to be very hopeful of any significant cut in total government spending, much as they will applaud any promise of efforts to economize.

And most are likely to favor any lightening of the tax burden on business and individuals up to a point. That point is the highly debatable one of just how high a Treasury deficit can go before it becomes dangerous.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The Christmas program by the youth of the Methodist Church will be given at 7:30 p. m. Sunday. This has ben an annual event usually held during the Sunday morning worship hour but by a unanimous decision of the teachers it was decided to try an evening program this year. There have ben some other changes in the planning of the program and the public is invited to attend.

The welcome will be given by Cherri Manuel and recitations will be given by Kim Jacobs; Pam Ankrom and Beth Higgman; Peggy Overly; Ronda Dickey; Galen Bock; Brad Kirk; Denise and Betsy Drake; Johnny Bryant; Frances Rowland and Melissa Doyle; Craig Manuel; Pamela Doyle; Tommy Doyle; Danny Gifford; Vicki Bock; Lexa Freshley; Alan Thompson; Tami Tarbill and Carolene Cross; Randy Knisley; Brenda Steinhauser; Donnie Davis; Pamela Woods; Diane Overly; David Steinhauser; Jeff Higman; Jan Kirk; Penny Root; Carla Longberry and Gayle Smith.

Following songs by the primary department children, recitation will be given by Cindy Gifford; Brian Manuel; Dathy Jacobs; Carol Shannon; Lynn Drake; Twila Dennis; Barbara Marvin; Jeff Newell; Linda Schaffer and Tonda Mac Kirk; Glen Gifford; Billy Joe Shaw; Linda Donrad; and Randy Kirkpatrick.

"The Visit of the Wise Men", a playlet, will be given with the narrator, Debbie Orr; Sarah, Debbie Doyle; Ruth, Shelly Drake; Elizabeth, Sherri Lynn Tarbill; Mary, Lu Ann Gifford; Joanne, Nita Kay Wright; Rachel, Becky Overly; Martha, Billie Ann Woods; Reuben, Steve Shipley; James, Tim Tarbill; Mark, Bruce McFadden; first wise man, Steve Manuel; second wise man, Mike Shannon; third wise man, Pat Ankrom.

After special music by the Junior Choir, the Nativity Scene will be presented by Susan Dundon; Eilen Doyle; Steve Shipley; Janet Shannon, Breta Smith and Renee Satchell; The Congregation will join in singing the second verse of "Silent Night" at the close.

FAMILY PARTY

The Methodist Church social rooms were filled Sunday evening for the family Christmas party. Robert Rowland was master of ceremonies for the program.

Singing of Christmas Carols, led by Mrs. Clarke Smith with Mrs. Mabel Louis at the piano, opened the evenings entertainment.

The junior choir presented two Christmas selections which were followed by a vocal solo, "Christmas Candles" by Johnny Sue Gifford. Harry Armstrong showed slides of a trip, he and Mrs. Armstrong had taken through the Western states.

Armstrong, on behalf of the church, presented the Rev. and Mrs. Orlo Freshly a television set and other gifts to their children, Lexa, Lezlee and Linsey.

The Men's Bible Class served refreshments of Christmas cookies, ice cream, coffee and punch during the social hour.

LIONS HAVE LADIES NIGHT

The Lions Club held its Ladies Night Christmas party Thursday at the American Legion Hall.

The attendance was less than expected due to the weather but Secretary Harold Wright reported 64 braved the blizzard to enjoy the smorgasbord dinner prepared by the members of the American Legion Auxiliary. The room was radiant throughout with many Christmas decorations.

Midway through the evening, President Woodrow Workman presented each lady a mother-of-pearl pill box topped with the Lion emblem, as a gift from the club. He also reminded the members to have all fruit cakes sold by Christmas.

A 50-50 dance had been scheduled as the evening's entertainment but due to the bad weather dancing to the music of the melodiers Orchestra lasted only until 10:30 p.m.

ATTEND CONCERT

Mrs. Paul Bryant, Miss Virginia Bryant, Miss Jennifer Ankrom, Mrs. Ruth Briggs, Miss Mary Jane Doyle and Mrs. Howard Pinkerton were guests Sunday at the matinee performance of the Christmas concert presented by the Chapel Choir of Capital University in Veteran's Memorial Building, Columbus. Tall Queen Citians Now Have Own Club

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Tall Cincinnatians now have their own club.

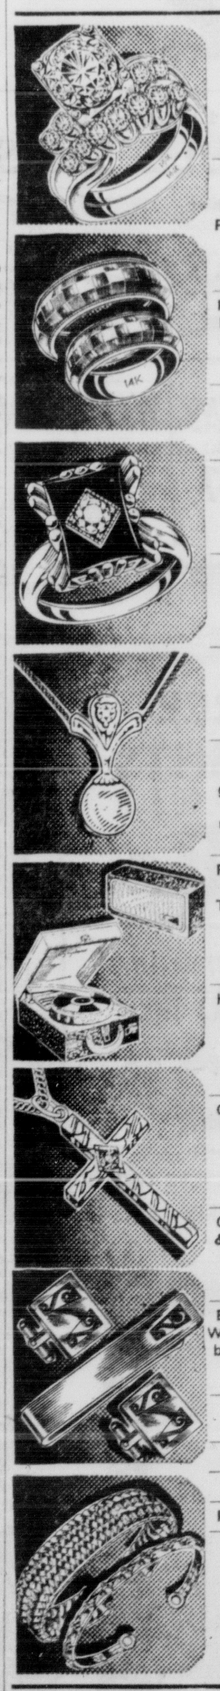

Secretary of state Ted W. Brown said today he had accepted non-profit articles of incorporation from High Cincinnatians Club, Inc.

He said the purpose clause states the organization seeks "to ". . . encourage the comradeship of its members through its activities . . . so as to better instill self-confidence and a positive outlook on the advantages of being tall. . . "

Initial trustees are Thomas L. Flinn and Helene Louise Holtkamp Cincinnati, and Mary E. Johnston, Hamilton, Ohio.

It is proper to display any flag of the United States, regardless of the number of stars, if it is in reasonably good condition.

Silence Hangs Over Historic Route

Visitors Can Now Take Taxi Through Battle-Scarred Khyber Pass

By DAVID LANCASHIRE

KHYBER PASS, Pakistan (AP) — The clang of ancient battle seems to echo still from the limestone cliffs of this historic invasion route where Alexander the Great's soldiers marched into India and generations of British troops fought the Pathan tribesmen.

But now you can drive comfortably through Khyber Pass in a taxi and buy a porcelain bust of Abraham Lincoln or a bag of fresh popcorn on the way.

Silence hangs over the great mud fort of Jamrud. The squat stone picket forts guarding the hilltops are empty of riflemen.

Tribesmen, with guns clutched in their hands and chests lopped with bandoliers of cartridges, smile and pose for pictures. The road that twists along 21 miles of Khyber Pass is a tourist route.

Under the colorfully calm exterior, however, tribal passions still boil and the pass is once again a point of tension. American aid which poured through the famous mountain valley until last year is affected.

Cut through great brown shale and limestone walls, Khyber Pass joins West Pakistan and Afghanistan. Over the centuries foreign invaders have used it to conquer India—Greeks, Tartars, Moguls and Persians.

Mrs. John F. Kennedy made a one-woman invasion of it this year, and villagers reminisce hungrily about the feast given in her honor.

British soldiers of the Indian army used to lead expedition after expedition through it for wars against Afghanistan and to subdue riflewielding tribesmen who created havoc on the frontier. In nearby Jagdalik Pass the Pathans wiped out a retreating British army of 16,000 men in 1841.

The Khyber is a restricted and loosely administered tribal area still. Visitors need a special entry pass from the Pakistan government. Tribal justice rules and shooting feuds are common.

Garishly colored buses bulging with passengers, baggage, geese and chickens grind up the pass road. Hooded women in baggy trousers trek to their fortified mud villages with bundles of firewood on their heads.

Alongside runs a railway built with many tunnels in 1925. The tribesman ride it free. A few years ago they shot a conductor who insisted on collecting ares.

The political trouble that swirls around the pass today is another tribal affair. Pakistan and Afghanistan broke off diplomatic relations 15 months ago when Afghan diplomats were accused of fomenting strife and subversion among tribesmen in the frontier area.

Kabul traditionally has brought its imports through Pakistan — many of them through Khyber Pass. It stopped when the dispute arose. Pakistan lost a lucrative transport business, but Afghanistan may have cut off its nose to spite its face.

Now the country has no practical way of importing anything. Some goods still come in through the Soviet Union or follow an almost prohibitively expensive roundabout route through Iran.

The United States has virtually suspended aid since materials cannot be brought in.

Mr. Shnoo's Zoo

BY LUCRECE BEALE

CHAPTER 10
THE BIRDS BEGIN TO SING

Mr. Shnoo watched in astonishment as Herbert and Louise came toward him. The giraffes swung thier long necks to and for and dipped their heads. The enormous straw hats between their ears tilted over their eyes and they looked lik ladies of fashion strolling on the beach.

The keeper who had charge of the large animals cried out and started to head off the giraffes but Mr. Shnoo said, "Wait!" and held up his hand.

He saw a short round man walking between Herbert's front legs and he knew suddenly just who it was. "Thank goodness!" he exclaimed. He went up to the little round man and said, "I was afraid you wouldn't come!"

"Of course I came," said Santa, for that is who it was. "But it took me a few minutes to work out a plan."

"What is the plan?" asked Mr. Shnoo. "What can we do?"

"Bring a ladder," said Santa.

Mr. Shnoo brought a ladder and Santa propped it up against Herbert's neck. Santa climbed up to the basket on Herbert's back and took out a big brown bucket over his arm and climbed up to Herbert's chin. He dipped the brush in the bucket and began to paint Herbert's neck.

"What kind of paint is that?" asked Mr. Shnoo.

"Isn't paint," replied Santa. "It's honey."

When he had finished painting Herbert's neck with honey he went over and did the same thing to Louise.

"Now," he said. "We'll see what happens." He led Herbert under the nearest tree. The giraffe pushed his neck up, up through the branches until the hat on his head was at the very tip of the tree.

Then Mr. Shnoo exclaimed, "Why, it's not a hat at all!"

It was a nest of straw. As soon as the birds saw it they fluttered from the branches and settled in the nest. Other birds found the honey and they gathered on Herbert's neck like flies on sticky paper. May of them slid or were pushed off and as they fell they landed in the basket of Herbert's back which was filled with straw and made the nicest kind of nest.

Then Louise took her place under another tree and Herbert was led to the bird cage where the birds were gently coaxed off Herbert and into their old nests. Herbert made three trips and Louise made three trips and when they finished there wasn't a single bird left out in the cold.

Mr. Shnoo turned up the heat in the cages and the zoo doctor rushed around filling hot water bottles to put in the nests and arranging steam kettles to moisten the air.

But it was clear the birds were ailing. They shivered and their feathers drooped and their eyes were dull. Blue Lady, the pa - ra-keet, was the sickest of all. Her eyelids fluttered, then closed, and she lay on her back with her tiny legs straight up in the air.

Mr. Shnoo put his finger on her breast. Her heart was beating very faintly.

"Poor Blue Lady," murmured Mr. Shnoo. Tears gathered in his eyes and rolled down his cheeks. Herbert and Louise, whom no one had had time to take back to the giraffe house, leaned over his shoulder and cried, too.

It was very sad becaue everyone knew that Blue Lady and all the other birds were going to die.

Santa climbed the ladder propped against Herbert's neck.

But Santa wasn't sad. He was busy at a stove in the corner. He was cooking a strange concoction made from pills and powders and drops of oil taken from the little bag on his back. He stirred and tasted and sniffed until finally he was satisfied.

He took the pan from the stove and set fire to its contents. It did not flame up but gently smoldered. As wisps of smoke drifted up, the bird cage filled with the most wonderful fragrance and suddenly a marvelous thing happened: all the birds began to sing!

Byrd Predicts Income Tax Cut Rejection

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., predicted today Congress will turn down President Kennedy's proposed 1963 tax cut unless it is accompanied by a promised reduction in spending.

Byrd, who heads the Senate Finance Committee, said in an interview he is opposed to "tax reductions out of borrowed money" —an objective he said the administration has spelled out by contending that spending cannot be reduced at this time.

In this connection, the Virginia senator predicted the federal deficit will run nearer $10 billion in the current fiscal year than the administration's most recent $7.8-billion estimate.

"If Congress could be assured of a clear cut reduction in expenditures, I believe it would vote a clear cut reduction in taxes," Byrd said. "But I don't believe Congress is going to be so irresponsible as to reduce taxes in the face of a tremendous deficit."

Ohio Jobless Claims Drop Nearly 4,000

Missouri's Rep. Clarence Cannon Still Tough, Agile Despite 83 Years

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — They may come tougher than Clarence Cannon, but it's hard to find them.

He's the cantankerous Democrat who lambasted his own House leadership in the closing hours of the last session so bitterly that the Republican leader took the floor to say some kind words about Speaker John McCormack.

The 83-year-old Missouri Congressman, who heads the House Appropriations Committee, is a man of many facets. Depending on his mood and the occasion, he can be as tenacious as a bulldog, as stubborn as a Missouri mule, or as gentle as the doting grandpa that he is.

A small man physically — he weighs around 140 pounds—Cannon makes up in grit for what he lacks in heft. His physical encounters during a span of almost 40 years in the House include minor fisticuffs with such colleagues as former Rep. John Phillips of California and Rep. John Taber of New York, Republicans, and former Sen. Kenneth McKellar of Tennessee, a Democrat.

These sparring matches occurred over differences on government money bills, all of which clear through Cannon's hands.

During his more than 30 years on the Appropriations Committee, Cannon has helped shell out billions of dollars of the taxpayers' money, and has cut billions from recommended appropriations. He warns continuously of the dangers of overspending and the evils of deficit financing.

As tight as he is with the public's money, Cannon is somewhat loose with his own, especially with silver dollars. He has shelled out hundreds of them to children whom he encounters in the course of his official meanderings.

With each silver dollar goes the admonition that if the recipient holds on to it "you will never go broke."

Cannon is mentally as well as physically agile—and he can hold a grudge or forget it.

At the end of the recent session of Congress he unleashed a tirade against the Democratic House leadership in general and Speaker McCormack in particular. He described the leadership as the most "biased and inept" he had seen during his long years of service.

Only a few minutes later, he stood and applauded as the House adopted a resolution praising McCormack's "able, impartial and dignified" handling of the speakership.

Cannon was personally close to the late Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, although Rayburn privately conceded that at times he found Cannon extremely difficult to get along with legislatively.

"Stubborn" and "bullheaded" were words Rayburn used on occasion to described Cannon's attitude.

But when the chips were down during Democratic national conventions, Rayburn at times found in Cannon a real friend in need. As chairman of many conventions, Rayburn always insisted that Cannon serve as parliamentarian. Conventions can get out of hand without a presiding officer and a shrewd parliamentarian with a working knowledge of precedents and the procedural "ropes".

On more than one occasion Cannon dipped into his bag of parliamentary gimmicks when the going got rough. He could somehow manage to cite a precedent for almost anything Rayburn wanted to do as chairman.

Rayburn once confessed after a turbulent convention session that he didn't know where Cannon found the precedents and doubted if they actually existed.

"If he can't find them, he'll make them," the late speaker commented.

Probably no one is more experienced in legislative precedent than is Cannon. He wrote many of the House rules—and "Cannon's Procedure in the House of Representatives" is a legislative bible.

Cannon started out to be a lawyer but got into local Missouri politics to widen his field of contacts. In 1911, Champ Clark, then speaker of the House, persuaded Cannon to come to Washington as a clerk in the speaker's office.

"I wanted to see the wheels go around" for a few weeks and took the job, Cannon recalls. He never got back to Missouri to stay. In 1917 he was named parliamentarian of the House, a post he held until he was elected as a member in 1922. Only one present member, Rep. Carl Vinson, Georgia Democrat, outranks Cannon in years of service.

In private life, Cannon is a gentile, home-loving man. His devotion to his wife, the former Ida Dawson Wigginton, to whom he has been married 56 years, is cited as a model of domesticity by colleagues.

The Cannons have two married daughters and five grandchildren.

"She runs the place, but she doesn't fool me," Cannon says of the only granddaughter, "but I doubt if I fool her, either."

Cannon's hobbies are few. He tinkers at the piano and operates a diversified 750-acre farm on the Mississippi River. He is an avid student of history.

He is a Baptist by birth and by choice and has never moved his home from his native town of Elsberry, Mo., which was founded in 1879, the year Cannon was born.

Student Bones Up For Three Exams Instead Of Two

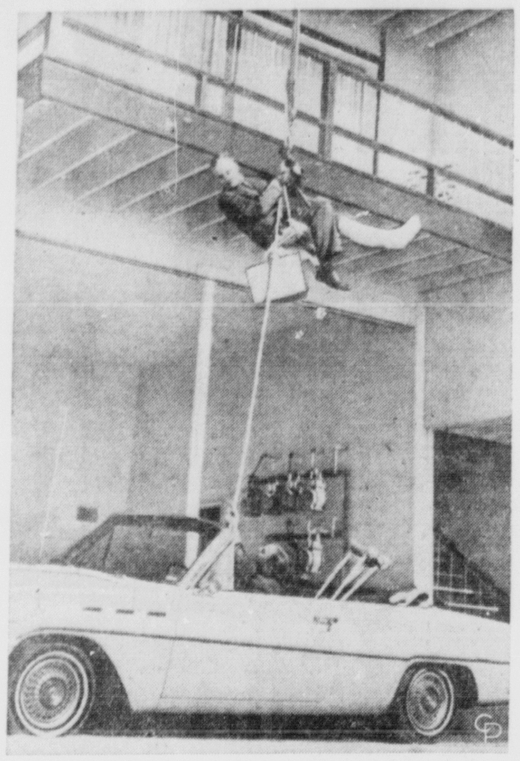

CINCINNATI (AP) — Stanley Shafer, 20, who says he gets good grades at the University of Cincinnati, has two exams coming up today and another one Thursday. He'd better pass that Thursday test.

The two exams today will be at the university, but the one Thursday will be before Traffic Court Judge Robert V. Wood.

Shafer was brought into court Tuesday on a charge of driving 75 miles an hour in a 35-m.p.h. zone. After questioning Shafer about being a student, Judge Wood handed the young man a traffic code book and directed him to return for a quiz on its provisions.

"Your sentence will depend on how well you learn your lessons" Judge Wood said.

A whip in a legislative body is a member charged with rounding up the members of his party and getting them to vote on bills in which the party has a special interest.

OFF TO WORK HE GOES—A fractured leg and a third floor apartment with no elevator proved a puzzler to Bob Fischer till he fixed up that bosun's chair. Here he lowers himself into waiting convertible driven by Bob Joseph, and off to to work he goes. It's a daily operation.

Cloud To Be Sidelined For Week Or 10 Days

BELLEFONTAINE, Ohio (AP) — Ohio House Speaker Roger Cloud, injured in an automobile accident Monday night when his car skidded off a highway near here, will be unable to resume his official duties for a week or 10 days, his physicians reported today.

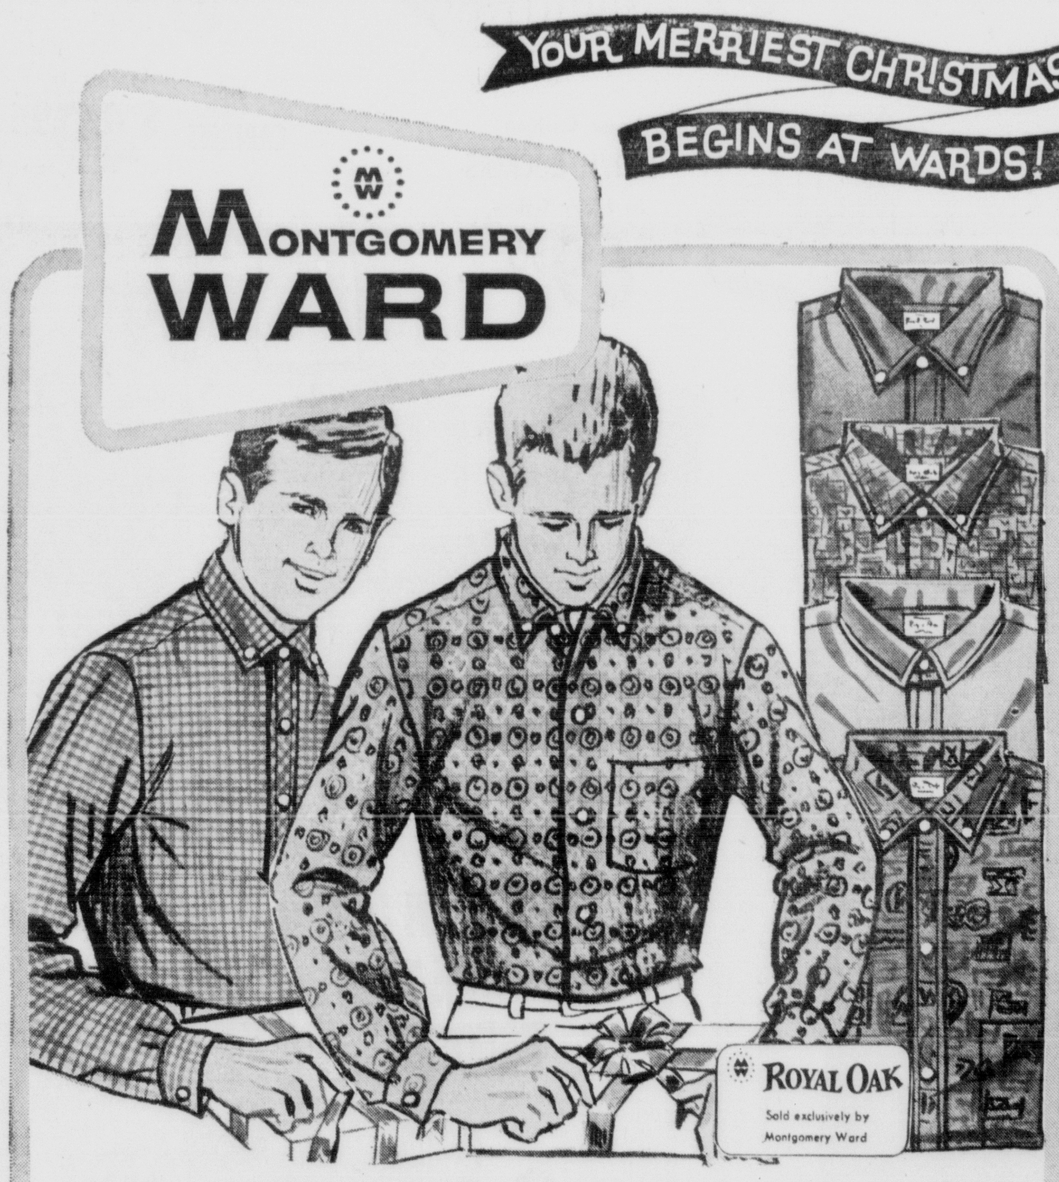

He is in Mary Rutan Hospital here in good condition. He suffered a fractured nose and ribs, but further examination disclosed he did not suffer a brain concussion as feared.

MT Panthers Face Test When They Meet Indains In Hillsboro Friday

Miami Trace's varsity basketball team, highly regarded by its seven South Central Ohio League rivals will finally come out into the light this weekend, when it goes to Highland County's town - of-seven - hills Friday and entertains usually tough Madison South team Saturday night.

The Panthers, only team in the circuit with just one game under its belt, have taken advantage of the extra week or so to groom themselves thoroughly for the 1962-63 campaign. The remaining SCO teams have played at least two games. The Franklin Heights Falcons have played five.

The Indians, the Panthers' nemesis last year, will not only have the advantage of having played four games, but will also be operating on their home reservation. Hillsboro is 2-2 for the season, but 2-0 in SCO action, having downed Circleville 63-49 and Washington C. H. 56-49.

Coach Don Hinten confided Wednesday the Panthers will be lacking in height against the Indians but will be taking up the slack by hot-handed shooting and speed.

On the Hillsboroans' floor, smallest in the league, it's naturally difficult for a fast-breaking team like Miami Trace to get up to full steam power. However, Hinten said the Panthers will be out to give the redmen a running battle — and it promises to be just that.

THE FRIGID temperatures recently have failed to induce the usual sluggish effect on the Miami Tracers, as they work out daily in their snow-isolated school, north of Washington C. H.

The Panther cagemaster asserted he had no surprises in the bag to pull Friday, but said the Miami Tracers will be in polished form, having divided their practice time on both zone and man - to - man defense strategy.

Hinten said he expects Hillsboro to begin, at least, with a zone defense against the Panthers, but commented "if we keep shooting up to practice caliber, we'll probably break open their zone-type stand in the first few minutes."

The Panthers are basically a man - to - man team themselves, but, according to Coach Hinten, their defense needs a little tightening before Friday.

The Panthers' starting quintet is still unsure, but regulars Carl Weaver, Richard Redd and Dave Craig are keeping in their usual good form, Hinten disclosed. The other two spots are more or less open, although center Dave McKee, starter in the Wilmington game, may be in the top running for one.

Hinten noted the other members of the squad have also been demonstrating hawkeye shooting in practice. Among them are Senior Mike Eckle, Junior Pirley Harris, Junior Bob Smith and Seniors Charles Hunter and Jim Newell.

Newell will be out of uniform Friday, Hinten said, due to a broken nose suffered in a collision with Mike Doyle Tuesday in practice.

Otherwise, the Panthers have ben relatively free from injury and illness.

HINTEN POINTED out Wednesday that starters for the encounter with Madison South Saturday will be determined primarily by their prowess in the night-before game. Other than this, there's little to be said about the Madison Countians, but they usually come up with a respectable club.

The Panthers, upset 60-58 by Wilmington two weeks ago, gave little indication to their SCO rivals of what to expect from them later.

In their inaugural, the Miami Tracers were plagued with miscues and violations, missing several uncontested lay-ups, and still came out only two points behind.

Coach Hinten said that, although they hit an excellent 45.6 per cent from the field, they would simply have to take more shots. This is one category the Miami Tracers will seek to imrpve at Hillsboro.

Another is foul-shooting. In the Hurricane game, the Panthers sank only 16 of 29 attempts for a poor 55 per cent average. More attention has also been devoted to doing better charity - tossing at Hillsboro.

Coach Hinten announced that the snowed-out Pleasant View game last week has been reset for Jan. 22.

Eddie Machen, Suicide-Bent, In Hospital

NAPA, Calif. (AP)—Eddie Machen, top-ranked heavyweight contender, was detained in a mental hospital Wednesday after a highway patrolman said he found him apparently contemplating suicide.

The patrolman said Machen told him he planned to kill himself because he was broke, couldn't get any more fights and "everything was all wrong."

The 30-year-old boxer was admitted to Napa State Hospital for observation.

Patrol Traffic Officer Bill McCluskey said he found Machen parked off U.S. Highway 40 near Vallejo, Calif., "a loaded gun next to him on the seat. He was writing a farewell letter."

A physician at the hospital said Wednesday night Machen was in "satisfactory condition and has no apparent injuries,"

Dr. B. J. Qhelan of the hospital staff would not discuss Machen's confinement but said he would be examined today.

Machen, a Negro, is managed by Sid Flaherty of Portland. Ranked No. 1 by the World Boxing Association and No. 2 behind former champion Floyd Patterson by Ring Magazine, Machen has won 42 fights, lost 4, had 2 draws and has scored 24 knockouts.

He has been mentioned as a possible opponent for heavyweight champion Sonny Liston and an imminent opponent for fast rising Cassius Clay.

WHS Juniors Lose Thriller

The WHS Lion junior high basketball team opened its 1962 - 63 season Wednesday after school at Hillsboro by dropping a 38 - 35 thriller to the Indian Juniors in a tight nip - and - tuck battle.

Randy Kelley poured in 19 points to pace WHS while David Matson followed with five. The Lions fell behind early in the game and were continually attempting to come back until the final buzzer sounded. Hillsboro held a five - point halftime lead.

No more details on individual scoring and team scoring by quarters were available because no official scorebook was kept by the WHS team.

WHS Coach Rodger Mickle said there were "too many memory lapses on defense" and "too many wild shots on offense."

The Lions will play their next tilt Dec. 20 at Greenfield.

Pontiacs Swamp Mt. Sterling Team

Washington C. H.'s Pontiac cagers reeled in their tenth high-scoring victory in ten starts Wednesday evening when they swamped Willow Wood at Mt. Sterling, 114-79.

Guard Ronnie Knisley powered the victors' to the impressive win, scorching the nets with 49 points.

Jerry Phillips paced the losing cause with 29 points on 13 field goals and three charity tosses.

Summary of scoring:

Pontiac — J. Foltz 8-0-16; J. Conley 8-0-16; L. Bock 8-1-17; P. Cox 6-0-12; B. Copeland 2-1-5; R. Knisley 20-8-48.

Mt. Sterling — J. Van Dane 5-1-13; W. Spradlin 2-0-4; D. Phillips 5-0-10; B. Hunter 3-0-6; K. Spladlin 6-0-12; J. Philips 13 3-29.

The Pontiac five will match wits and ability with a cage outfit at Good Hope Thursday.

The team recently annexed a new player — Gene Bradds, a 6-5 center, brother of Ohio State's junior star, Gary Bradds.

Kenyon Swimmers Win

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Kenyon College, compiling 100 points, won the Ohio Conference Swimming relays here Wednesday. The meet had been postponed last Saturday due to weather conditions.

Team totals: Kenyon 100, Ohio Wesleyan 68, Wittenberg 50, Akron 43, Wooster 26, Muskingum 23, Denison 19, Oberlin 13, Baldwin-Wallace 10.

Fast Break Offense And New Type Defense Are Planned By Lions

Coach John Powell's WHS cage squad is expected to reveal a new wide open, fast breaking offense and revamped defensive patterns this weekend when the Lions invade Pickaway County for their third game of the South Central Ohio League season and their first non-loop tilt of the campaign.

The Lions, bubbling with enthusiasm after impressive showings in their first two games, will carry a 1-1 record into Friday night's SCO clash with the Tigers at Circleville. On Saturday night, WHS will return to Pickaway County to tangle with Teays Valley in a non - loop scrap on the Vikings' home floor at Ashville.

The Lions tied for third place in the SCO standings with Franklin Heights, both 1-1. They opened their season Nov. 30 by topping Pleasant View 66-56, but were trimmed by highly - regarded Hillsboro 56-49 last Friday. They have yet to play a non - loop scrap.

The Lion - Tiger game is expected to be a nip - and - tuck, down - the - the - wire battle between two of the SCO's oldest rivals. The Tigers have played only one league game this eason, losing to Hillsboro 63-49, but have also played three non - loop teams, winning one and dropping two. They trimmed Chillicothe 62 - 57 and lost to Lancaster, 56 - 46, and to Teays Valley, 46-37.

Teays Valley, which overcame a 10-point halftime deficit to whip Circleville in the intra - county scrap last Saturday, is undefeated in three games this season. This is the Vikings' first season as a consolidated school so the Lions will be meeting them for the first time Saturday.

DURING THIS week's practices, Coach Powell has installed the new fast breaking offense, has drilled his 10 - member WHS squad on its new defensive patterns and emphasized improvement in ball handling, a weak point in the first two games.

Coach Powell will start basically the same starting lineups against Circleville and Teays Valley this weekend as he has used in the first two games, although one and possibly two changes may be made during the game. However, the starting quintet will still remain one of the youngest in the school's history.

Senior Captain John Thomas (6-0) is back at one forward post while Freshman Gary Knisley (6-3) has been shifted from center to the other corner position. Sophomore Ray Joslin (6-0), who saw much service as a substitute last week, has been moved up to center. Tom Townsend (5-10) and Gary Card (5-9), both sophomores, are slated to start at guards, but an injury may restrict Townsend to limited action.

Townsend, the SCO's top individual scorer with 35 points and a 17.5 average, has been hampered this week by a foot infection and complications. If he is unable to start, 5-10 Junior Bill Marting will take his place. Joslin is suffering from a pulled knee cartilage but is expected to be ready for full-time duty.

Thomas trails Townsend in individual scoring with a 10.5 average. Joslin and Knisley each have eight-point averages while Card sports a 6.5 clip. In rebounding, Knisley has gathered in 30, followed by Thomas, with 25. Card and Joslin have also contributed heavily in rebounding.

SCOUTING REPORTS indicate that Circleville will use a deliberate style offense,featuring a well - patterned 2-1-2 line-up, while sticking with a man-to-man defense. Bob Waple, a 6-4 forward and Clesson Thomas, a 6-2 center, pace the Tigers' attack. Coach Powell said the taller and more experienced Tigers have "potentially a good club" and are "due to break loose."

Teays Valley is a "very fast" team, according to Coach Powell, and "runs a lot," using the fast break as its big weapon. The Vikings are also expected to use a man-to-man defense against the Lions. The leading scorer is Sonny Roof, former star at Ashville. The Vikings' defense limited Circleville to only two points in the final quarter in last Saturday's tilt.

Coach Lewis Morgan's WHS Lion Reserve squad will accompany the varsity team on both trips and meet the Circleville and Teays Valley JV's in preliminaries before the respective varsity games. The WHS team has won both of its previous tilts 28-25 over Pleasant View and 39-26 over Hillsboro.

The Lion reserves have been hampered by injuries this week so Coach Morgan is uncertain of the starting lineup. Rob Minshall and Paul Stanforth are slated to start at guards, Dave Marlin will probably be at center, and Barry Kelly or Dale Lynch and Rob Rodenfels at forwards.

However, Minshall has been bothered with the flu, Kelley with an ear infection, Stanforth with a twisted hip and Substitute Guard Larry Mowery has a pulled thigh ligament. These injuries could force changes in the starting quintet.

Nellie Fox Repeats As 'Ace Keystoner'

BOSTON (AP) — Although Nellie Fox is supposed to have slowed down a step or two, the official 1962 American League averages serve as testimony that the veteran Chicago White Sox second baseman can still do more than an adequate job in the field.

The fielding statistics released Wednesday showed that Fox made only eight errors in 812 chances for a .990 average and topped the second basemen for the fifth time. He also led in 1952, 1954, 1956 and 1959.

Three other White Sox players took defensive honors. They were first baseman Joe Cunningham, who fielded .9942 to edge Kansas City's Norm Siebern at .9935, shortstop Luis Aparicio .973 and pitcher Ray Herbert, who handled 71 chances flawlessly. It was the fourth straight time Aparicio had paced the shortstops.

Baltimore's Brooks Robinson headed the third basemen for the third consecutive year. He fielded .973. Jimmy Piersall of Washington topped the outfielders with .997 and Elston Howard of the Yankees had the highest average among the catchers, .995.

The White Sox were first in club fielding with a .982 average. They were followed by Minnesota and Baltimore, .950 each and New York, Boston and Kansas City, .979 apiece.

The Twins led in double plays with 173.

Michigan State Tackle Is Signed By Browns

CLEVELAND (AP) — Jim Kanicki, a 244-pound tackle from Michigan State and Cleveland's second round draft choice, has been signed by the Browns of the National Football League.

Coach Paul Brown said Kanicki will be used as a defensive tackle.

Cincinnati Reds Plan For 30 Spring Games

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds plan a 30 - game spring training exhibition in 1963. It includes four games with the Chicago White Sox on a barnstorming trip home prior to start of the regular season.

General Manager Bill DeWitt said Cincinnati batterymen will report at the Tampa, Fla., training field Feb. 21 and the rest of the team will be in uniform Feb. 26.

Terry Baker Gets Nod As Top U.S. Back

NEW YORK (AP) — Versatile Terry Baker, Oregon State's do-everything quarterback, was named the outstanding college football back in the nation today in an Associated Press poll of sportswriters and broadcasters.

Baker, who is being buried in an avalanche of honors in post-season activity, was a narrow choice over Jerry Stovall of Louisiana State. Miami's George Mira and Wisconsin's Ron VanderKelen followed in that order.

Baker previously had been named to the All-America team and had won the Heisman and Maxwell trophies. He was the No. 1 draft choice of the professional National Football League.

"You name it, and he can do it," one voter commented in casting his ballot for the slender, 195-pound Baker who finished with a career total of 4,980 yards gained, second highest in collegiate history.

Baker, however, edged Stovall by only two votes in the balloting by 132 sportswriters from coast to coast. Stovall, a powerful, explosive runner, was the only non-quarterback in the top five.

Baker, who passes left-handed, kicks with his right foot and pitches baseball right-handed, was the first draft choice of the Los Angeles Rams, who had the No. 1 pick in the NFL.

Baker gained 2,276 yards rushing and passing and threw 13 touchdown passes in leading Oregon State to an 8-2 record and a spot against Villanova this weekend.

Jim Taylor Voted No. 1 NFL Player

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Taylor, Green Bay's crashing fullback who is noted for his great second effort, was voted Player of the Year in the National Football League today by an Associated Press committee of sports writers and broadcasters from the 14 league cities.

Taylor, a 27-year-old former Louisiana State ace in his fifth year of pro ball, grabbed the award won last year by Paul Hornung, the Packers' glamorous triple threat halfback who has ben crippled by a knee injury this season.

With one more game to play, Taylor already has tied the NFL record by scoring 18 touchdowns, all on the ground, and leads the league in scoring with 108 points.

Packer fans have been insisting that Taylor deserved to be named the All-Star fullback over Cleveland's Jimmy Brown. They finally got their wish this season. Brown's fabulous five-year reign as rushing champion is sure to end and Taylor appears sure to succeed him. Taylor has gained 1,318 yards in 249 carries, 206 yards more than John Henry Johnson of Pittsburgh, his closest competitor. Brown is fourth with 861 yards.

Y. A. Tittle, the old "bald eagle" who has thrown 27 touchdown passes for the New York Giants, finished a strong second to Taylor in the voting. Taylor drew 19 ballots, Tittle had 13 and Bobby Mitchell, Washington flanker back had four.

Taylor is a key to Coach Vince Lombardi's system of ball control that has seen the Packers score 38 of their 50 touchdowns on the ground and only 12 through the air.

Get Boxing Awards

NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Marvin (Mal) Stevens, a noted orthopedic surgeon and a former football star and coach, and middleweight champion Dick Tiger of Nigeria were named today to receive the Boxing Writers Association's annual awards.

3 Bowling Tourneys Set Up For Bowland

Bowling, which has been in high gear at Bowland since last fall, is now moving into high-high gear, tournament coming up for the first time and the annual city men's and women's tournaments slated to follow close behind.

Besides, bowlers who roll the most over their averages in league games next week will be given a 12 to 15 pound turkey by Bowland, Tony Capuana, Bowland manager, pointed out that many bowlers roll in more than one league and that it is possible, though not probable, for these to win more than one turkey.

The mixed team handicap tournament, in which teams composed of three men and two women will roll for the high three-game total, is slated for Jan. 6. The entry fee is $3 per bowler and the winning team is in line to get $75 in cash and a trophy. First prize is based on 16 entries and what the other teams get will depend on the number of entries. Since this will be a handicap event, entries are limited to league bowlers. However, they will make up their own teams.

THE ANNUAL Men's City Bowling association tournament scheduled for Feb. 3 and 10 will be considerably different from tourneys of past seasons.

For one thing the entry fees have been raised 25 cents per man per event, making the total $3.25 and, for another, awards also will be made for actual scores and handicap scores. In the past the tournament has been on only a handicap basis.

The entry fee will be divided for $1.50 for bowling, $1.50 for the prize fund, 25 cents for expenses and an additional $1.25 optional for the actual pins phase of the tourney.

Last year, 100 teams, 120 doubles, 120 singles and 75 all-events comprised the tourney.

Capuana said that if the entry list is as heavy, or heavier, than that of last year, the tourney may have to be extended to Feb. 17.

* * *

THE WOMEN'S City Bowling Association tournament will be rolled Jan. 20 and 27 with entry fees of $2.75 per bowler per event, plus $1 for the all-events. Of this $1.25 will go into the prize pot and be divided among the front finishers, in numbers and amounts to be determined by the number of entries.

At the association meeting, it was decided the same rules as last year will be followed again.

The team, doubles and singles events will be on a handicap basis only, but the all-events winners will be determined by the number of pins actually knocked down.

The association was to have named five delegates to the state Women's Bowling Association in Warern the last of February and the first of March during the annual state tourney, but this was deferred until those who have entered the tournament are notified of the times they have been assigned to roll. It was agreed that an effort should be made to name delegates who will be in Warren for the tournament at convention time.

Miss Verna Williams was chosen to represent the Washington C. H. association at the national WIBC convention in Memphis in April.

At the conclusion of the meeting, two bowlers were presented trophies by Bowland for rolling actual scores of more than 230. Mrs. Jeddy Graves received one for her game of 239 and Mrs. Nellie Cash for hers of 237.

By ED MISURELL
Central Press Association

Are you a last minute, hasty shopper at holiday time?

Many of us are.

Couple this national habit with the fact that most toylands are filled with high voltage bustle and confusion in the Christmas season and you can well realize why even the most level headed assistant Santas find it difficult to make a well balanced choice of playthings best suited for the children on their shopping list.

This estimate of the hazards of shopping for toys at the 11th hour Yule rush period was made by Chicago's Dr. Phillip Lewis of the Toy Guidance Council Educational Advisory Committee.

"CHOICE OF TOYS well suited to children's neds not only gives them major pleasure," he said, "but also contributes lasting dividends of educational value. Consequently, toy buying is an assignment that deserves prime priority on any Christmas shopper's list.

"The more time a Christmas shopper takes to learn about the variety of toys available, their purposes and age appeal, the better job he will do in selecting the right gifts for each youngster, and the greater pleasure he will derive personally from the experience.

"Toys nowadays, literally encompass the activities of the world we live in. They present the whole panorama of living; they recreate history and make music meaningful.

"The eye appeal and movement of toys can be truly bewildering at first impact," he noted, in his warning against a frantic schedule of toy buying.

"THE MONEY spent on toy gifts can be a vitally important investment in a child's future. Toys thoughtfully chosen," he continued, "are the most significant gifts you can give in the terms of helping the child discover his capabilities and develop them constructively.

"The challenge offered by the variety of modern toys is particularly great for those who are not in close contact with the children on their gift lists—aunts, uncles, grandparents and freinds who may live at a distance and seldom share the children's play time."

Dr. Lewis advises prospective toy shoppers to double check on the current age of the children on thier lists. The impact of time on children is often incredible to an adult who is a bit out of touch. Yet each age of childhood has specific play interests which deserve thoughtful attention when you buy toys.

THE IDEAL TOY for any child of any age offers excitement, fun and entertainment and at the same time has built-in opportunities for development and growth.

Here's a toy for tiny youngsters of crib and playpen age which provides them with 10 different manipulative activities. There are doors to open, close or slide, knobs to turn, dials to spin, etc.

Experienced salesmen and saleswomen in toy departments or shops are often of great help to purchasers when it comes to choosing a gift for a youngster. If you consult them early enough, before the last minute buying rush sets in, their aid can be invaluable.

In this 1962 season they will undoubtedly point out, among other things, that this is the year of the titanic talkathon in toyland.

* * *

DOLLYS, teddy bears, sea serpents, hobby horses, etc., will be sounding off in their own behalf to win the favor of parents and their youngsters.

All you have to do is pull a string or flip a switch and abovementioned toys talk, sing or tell stories.

"They are more realistic today than ever before and therefore more capable of fascinating and amusing youngsters," explained Mel Freud, president of the Toy Guidance Council.

"In many cases, the phrases are designed to direct the child into wholesome play situations which tend to broaden his knowledge and interests. These talking toys span the age groups from tots to teen-agers."

MECHANIZATION and electronics also play a big part in this year's toy corp. One electric control board permits youngsters to transport tiny magnetic rockets from a hidden silo to a lanuching pad, send them into orbit and land them on revolving planets.

A new table-top game gives both young and old duffers a chance to putt through nine challenging holes of golf, hazards and all, in an attempt to break par and win the miniature gold trophy which springs up on the night green.

Bowling enthusiasts can enjoy table-top versions of that sport with such realistic features as automatic pin setters and ball returns.

A motorized home work shop, complete with lathe bed and accessories, drills, sands, turns, shapes, saws and bores plastic lumber and balsa wood. For complete safety, the machine stops at the press of a finger.

* * *

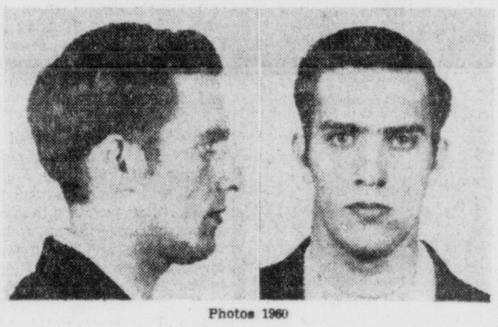

SHARP-SHOOTERS can safely have a field day with the indoor-ranges. Each has a rifle which shoots only tiny spots of light.

When the light contacts the electronic target's bull's-eye, lights flash and bells ring.

The list of this year's traditional and new toys is long and varied, but guidance experts offer one key bit of advice no matter what type toys you buy.

Remember the toy you purchase is not for the amusement of you—an adult but for a youngster YOU want to please.

FUGITIVES FROM THE FBI

JOHN CHESTER MITCHELL

(In co-operation with J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, this paper is running descriptive articles on the criminals wanted by the FBI.)

JOHN CHESTER MITCHELL is being sought by the FBI on a federal warrant issued on May 14, 1962, at Asheville, N. C., charging him with transporting a stolen motor car interstate.

An earlier federal warrent issued on January 10, 1962, at Harrisburg, Pa., charged Mitchell as John Chester Perry with unlawful interstate flight to avoid confinement after conviction for burglary and larceny.

On January 5, 1962, Mitchell and a fellow inmate escaped from the State Correctional Institution at Huntingdon, Pa. The two desperate fugitives reportedly fled the state in a stolen automobile which was later recovered at Asheville, N. C.

Also known as Sonny Mitchell, John Chester Perry, Sonny Perry and Merle Thompson, the wanted man's occupations include farmhand, laborer and stock boy.

Mitchell has been convicted for burglary, larceny and corrupting the morals and contributing to the delinquency of a minor. Following his escape from prison, he was in possession of several rifles and he should be considered armed and dangerous.

DESCRIPTION: Age, 24; Born, Franklin County, Pa.; Height, 5 feet 8 inches; Weight, 160 to 165; Build, medium; Hair, brown; Eyes, gray; Complexion, olive. Reportedly has dentures and sometimes wears glasses. Has scar over left eye.

INFORMATION concerning fugitive should be telephoned to the nearest FBI office.

Your Horoscope

The Stars Say— By ESTRELLITA

For Tomorrow

YOU MAY find yourself up against some confusing situations now. While you will have the desire to forge ahead and carry out pet projects, somewhat adverse influences will slow you up so that you may not be able to accomplish all that you wish. Do your best, however—with a view to better days ahead.

For The Birthday

If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope indicates that ambitious plans, coupled with energy and determination, could prove remunerative. Keep alert and capitalize on all available opportunities to display your ingenuity and spirit of enterprise. Don't however, expect immediate results. You probably won't see a real uptrend until May.

Be careful in personal relationships during August and September. These months can be stimulating from a social standpoint, but you may have to exercise great diplomacy in domestic and community circles.

Travel and romance will be favored in June and September —the latter an all-around good month for all under this sign.

A child born on this day will be intelligent and warm-hearted, but may have to curb a tendency toward dogmatism.

TV Viewing

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—As the television season rumbles along, it becomes increasingly evident that the CBS network, programming heavily in big star names and comedy, has estimated accurately the public's taste.

CBS, powerful as a bulldozer, presents nine of the 10 most popular shows listed in the most recent Nielsen ratings, plus 18 of the top 20. This establishes some sort of a network record.

The Nielsen top 10—based on estimates of audiences between Nov. 11 through 25—are, in order, the comedy phenomenon "Beverly Hillbillies," the Red Skelton hour, "Candid Camera," "Ben Casey," "Lucy," the Danny Thomas show, Jack Benny, the Andy Griffith show, "Gunsmoke," and "I've Got a Secret." Sole non-CBS show on the list is ABC's "Ben Casey."

Nine of the top 20 shows are comedy, three are game or panel shows and only two are Westerns ("Bonanza," NBC's only top-20 entry, was number 13).

If nothing else, the list indicates what the average viewer asks of television: light, painless entertainment.

Major disappointment of the week was "The Court-Martial of Captain Wycliff," on NBC's "Dick Powell Show" Tuesday night. It started off powerfully—a military trial of a war hero charged with shooting down a scientist who determined to go over to this nation's enemies.

But the hour resolved itself into the usual whodunit debate—whether the captain murdered the traitor or not. The wind-up was most unsatisfactory: the captain confessed he had not murdered, but "executed" him. It was as if the author, having gotten all tangled up in a moral question of homicide, couldn't find any way to finish the script.

Recommended tonight: "The Way from Darkness," ABC, 10-11 (EST) — drama on "Premier Theatre" starring Shelly Winters and Joan Hackett as two lonely, unhappy sisters; "Bonfire," CBS, 10-11—Peter Falk and Dina Merrill in an "Alfred Hitchcock Hour" tale of suspense.

Mother, 2 Children Die In Home Fire

CINCINNATI (AP)—A mother, her 7-year-old daughter and 4-year old son died in a fire which destroyed their suburban Remington home early today.

Police identified the dead as Mrs. Janet Bissantz, 43, wife of Marvin C. Bissantz, and their children, Linda, 7, and Mark, 4.

Bissantz is an employe of the General Electric Co. and was at work at the time of the blaze, neighbors reported.

Why A Thermometer? Just Hire A Cricket

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A committee which has just completed a year's study says you can tell the temperature by counting the number of times a cricket chirps in 15 seconds and adding 37.

This and other tidbits are contained in a science guide prepared by the Committee for Elementary School Teachers in Arizona. The purpose is to pep up the study of science.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X B
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Bids Opened Today On Rt. 71 Projects

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Construction projects for both ends of the much-discussed Interstate 71 superhighway highlighted the state highway department's next-to-last bid-opening of 1962 today.

The last bid-opening of the year is set for next Tuesday, and the first of 1963 will be Jan. 8.

Interstate 71, presently open from just south of Columbus northeast to a point near Medina, has been discussed often in the legislature and elsewhere. Considerable pressure has been brought on the department to complete the Columbus-Cincinnati leg and also to hook it in with the Ohio-Turnpike to the northeast.

Among the projects bid on today:

Hamilton and Warren counties—1.9 miles of the Columbus-Cincinnati leg of Interstate 71, from about a mile southeast of the Kemper-Snider Road junction in Montgomery County to the junction of Mason and Fields Roads in Warren County. Apparent low bid: De Salvo Construction Co., Cincinnati, $1,757,000. State estimate: $2,232,600.

Hamilton County—2.86 miles of Interstate 275 (a section of the Circle Freeway) which will run from the Indiana border around the north edge of the Cincinnati area, beginning west of U. S. 42 in northeast Hamilton County and making a temporary connection with Interstate 71. Apparent low bid: Foley Construction Co., Cincinnati, $3,769,982. State estimate: $5 million.

Medina County -- 4.48 miles of Interstate 71 from north of Ohio 18, where Interstate 71 pavement now ends, to 1.5 miles north of Weymouth, and the relocation of 3.1 miles of Ohio 3 from 1.5 north of Rocky River Bridge to near the Ohio 606 intersection. Apparent low bid: Harry Miller and National Engineering and Construction Co., Cleveland, $4,768,809. Estimate: $5,869,000.

Warren county — 4.03 miles of Interstate 71 from near Ohio 48 to southwest of Ohio 123. Also part of the Columbus - Cincinnati leg. Apparent low bid: Perine Corp., Farmingham, Mass., $3,531,246. Estimate: $4,338,700.

Washington County —completion of a section of four-lane highway between Marietta and the Belpre-Parkersburg, W. Va., area by relocating 6.37 miles of Ohio 7 and U.S. 50. Apparent low bid: S. J. Groves, Minneapolis, $4,-992,-764. Estimate: $5,474,100.

MISS JOWANDA WILSON

Jowanda Wilson To Be Graduated Cum Laude, OSU

Miss Jowanda Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billie Wilson, 215 McKinley Ave., will be graduated "cum laude" from Ohio State University Friday.

She will receive her bachelor of science degree in education in ceremonies in St. John Arena on the campus, after completing the course with a 3.53 scholastic average.

Miss Wilson, a 1959 graduate of Washington High School, will be one of only 15 to be graduated from Ohio State Friday with this high scholastic honor. She ranked third in her high school class with a 3.87 average — 4.00 is the highest attainable.

Miss Wilson attended Ohio Wesleyan University the first year and then transferred to Ohio State University. At OSU, she was a member of the Makio staff her sophomore year and was inducted into Pi Lambda Theta, national honorary education society, last week.

She will be married Dec. 29 to Lieut. Clyde Patrick Harkins, who was graduated from Ohio State last spring. He is now stationed at Ft. Knox, Ky.

She plans to teach after her marriage, possibly in the elementary schools at Ft. Knox or nearby Louisville, Ky.

Court Plans Memorial For Late Judge Hart

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court's memorial for the late Judge William L. Hart of Alliance will be held Friday.

Chief Justice Carl V. Weygandt rescheduled the ceremonies after they were postponed from last Tuesday because of the weather.

Friends Help Fire Victims; More Aid Needed

"I never realized until now how many friends we have— most of whom we met only today."

That was the way Amos Goolsby Jr. expressed his appreciation to city and county residents who already have contributed furniture and clothing to his family whose home near Jeffersonville was destroyed by fire early Tuesday evening.

The blaze was believed to have been caused by a faulty furnace.

The Goolsbys and their children, Gary and Jerry (12 - year - old twins) and Larry, 17, are staying temporarily with Goolsby's brother, Charles, and family, at 608 Campbell St. Amos Goolsby is a truck driver who hauls grain and other produce for area farmers.

Mrs. Charles Goolsby said Wednesday evening that the twin boys had received practically all the clothing they will need to get through the winter— coats, shirts, trousers and shoes, but that the oldest boy and both the husband and wife need both clothing and furniture.

A bed, an iron and a stove are the only articles of furniture they now possess.

THE FATHER is still without a coat (size 40), street shoes (size 7), trousers (size 34-30) and shirts (medium size) Goolsby's wife, Judy, has thus far has been given a coat and a few dresses, needs other apparel. Larry, 17, needs shirts (medium or small size), shoes (size 9½ or 10), trousers (30-31) and a coat (size 36 or 38), Mrs. Goolsby disclosed.

Since a few of these needs may have been filled by now, it might be wise for persons having various items to contribute to telephone the family first.

Goolsby and his wife were at a Washington C. H. laundromat when the fire started, and they have the few items they had in the wash then— mostly underclothes, socks and boys' overalls.

THE GOOLSBYS' two - story nine - room rural dwelling was located on State Rt. 734, seven miles west of Jeffersonville, near the Greene County line. The fire began suddenly, presumably in the basement, at 6:15 p. m. and spread rapidly. Goolsby estimates his personal loss of uninsured furnishings and clothing in excess of $7,000. Owner of the house, K. R. Bryan, Upper Jamestown Rd., had the house insured. He and Mrs. Bryan estimated damage above $10,000.

When the fire started, the three boys fled from the house immediately, without taking time to put on warm clothing; one was not even wearing shoes.

Any further contributions of food clothing or furniture to the family would be deeply appreciated, Goolsby said.

Invalid Author Dies

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Betsey Barton, 45, author who achieved literary success after a crippling accident, was found dead Wednesday in the swimming pool of her home. Miss Barton, daughter of Bruce Barton, New York advertising executive, had been confined to a wheelchair since she was injured in an auto accident in 1935.

The United States annexed what later became the Territory of Hawaii on July 7, 1898.

She Sees Sea First Time Although Home Near It

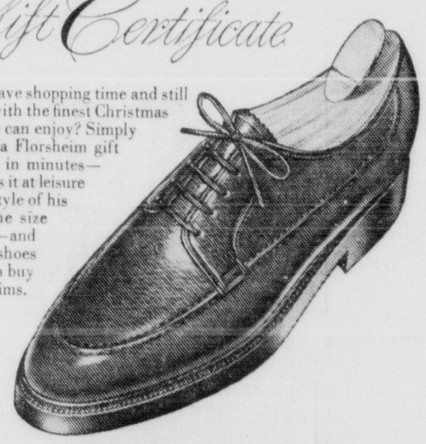

CHINCOTEAGUE, Va. (AP) — Mrs. Ralph Shreeves has lived her life close to the sea without being able to see the surf until recently. The only way she could get there was by boat. When the Assateague Bridge and Beach Authority opened a road and a four-span bridge across Assateague channel Mrs. Shreeves walked the four miles to the beach and another four miles back just to take a look.
